Cold Snap Follows Flood In East; Many Lose Their Homes In N. Y. State

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—With the exception of telephone and telegraph lines in Northern California, where heavy snows fell during the last 48 hours, damage due to Wednesday's storm was rapidly being repaired today.

The Southern Pacific is maintaining schedule service through Northern California, although there were slight delays yesterday due to slides and washouts.

Search for Camille Bresschi, 11-year-old Santa Rosa boy, so far has been fruitless and he is believed to have been drowned.

Total damage due to the flood has been estimated at between $300,000 and $500,000, including that done in the Sacramento valley.

It was pointed out, however, that flood damage in certain localities will be more than equalized by the general benefit derived from the soaking rain which has almost made up the deficit resulting from last year's drought.

COLD SNAP FOLLOWS FLOOD IN EAST.
NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Flood waters throughout the east, yesterday, as a result of melting snows, were receding today with the advent of a cold snap.

Many thousands of dollars damage was done and several thousand persons in New York state were rendered homeless.

Meanwhile, in the south, where the coldest weather of winter was experienced Thursday, temperatures were rising rapidly today.

Water in the north came just in time, as several of the large rivers were at the flood stage and the situation was critical.

The human victims meet their injuries without anesthesia, and get their subsequent surgical treatment when and as they can. Dr. Manwaring, of the Stanford laboratory, is making research on traumatic shock in dogs, to throw light on the cause and treatment of the same condition in men.

SMITH TO TALK AT 'Y' BANQUET
"Is America a Great Nation?" The challenge contained in this pointed question will be answered by Fred B. Smith, internationalist, worker, and social welfare worker, who is also a noted author, at tonight's Y. M. C. A. convention banquet to be held at the Ebell club.

Tomorrow at the forenoon general meeting of the convention the noted speaker will speak on "The New Emphasis in Religion," considered one of the most stirring addresses ever delivered in recent years.

Election of convention officers will be held this evening at the dinner meeting, State Secretary Harry O. Hill announced.

One of the outstanding features of the convention activities from a business as well as social viewpoint is the breakfast meeting at the fashionable St. Ann's Inn, at which A. J. Crookshank, president of the First National bank, will be the host to the members of the state executive committee.

Supply Wagon of County Is Looted
Thirty gallons of gasoline, 15 gallons of oil, and a number of valuable tools, belonging to the county, were stolen from a supply wagon of the county road department, near Talbert last night, according to a report made to the sheriff's office at noon today by Walter Phillips, foreman of the road department.

That two men were responsible for the theft is evidenced by footprints found near the wagon, by Jesse Elliott, deputy sheriff, who investigated the reported theft today.

HANGED AT SAN QUENTIN
SAN QUENTIN, PENITENTIARY, Cal., Feb. 13.—Francisco Casade, young Mexican, was hanged here today for the murder of Traffic Officer Oscar Longfellow in Los Angeles county November 23, 1924.

Sad-Faced Crowd Watches Search for Mine Victims
DORTMUND, Germany, Feb. 13.—A sad-faced weary group of women and children came at dawn to the big iron gates that bar the way to the Ministers Stein mine and waited for rescue workers still probing the depths of the blasted shafts to find the bodies of some victims of Wednesday night's explosion.

The death list remained unchanged at 131, but a score of bodies were yet to be recovered.

Assassination of Premier Rumor, Denied

ATHENS, Feb. 13.—Premier Patchitch of Jugoslavia is reported in unconfirmed dispatches from Salonika to have been assassinated by an unidentified Croat.

Hundreds of arrests took place in Jugoslavia during the recent elections, in which Premier Patchitch's followers won over the combined opposition by a narrow margin. Rioting and bloodshed were general and there was much talk in Belgrade of attempts of an attempt against the life of the premier.

LEGATION DENIES DEATH OF PREMIER
LONDON, Feb. 13.—The Serbian legation here discounts rumors that Premier Patchitch has been assassinated.

SECOND BATCH OF SERUM IS NEARING NOME

NOME Alaska, Feb. 13.—"Friday the thirteenth" probably will be celebrated in Nome by the arrival of the second consignment of diphtheria serum sent across the frozen tundra from Anchorage by dog team, ending the second "race of mercy."

Edward Rohn, with his combination husky and bird dog team, will receive the serum packages at Safety and finish the race.

The relay teams crossed Norton yesterday and reached Golovin Bay during the night. The trail from that point to Nome permits fast time unless severe weather makes the going heavy.

While awaiting the finish of the second serum marathon of the winter, some buzzed today with gossip about the first.

Gunner Kasson, who was hailed as a hero when he and his dogs came all the way from Golovin Bay to Nome without rest, and through a howling blizzard at that, has admitted that he violated his trail orders and that there was actually no necessity for his grueling finish.

Rohn had been sent to Safety to meet Kasson and take the serum packages after they had been warmed and examined to see that the serum had not frozen.

Instead of stopping at Safety, Kasson coaxed his dogs on by the roadside at that point, and while Rohn toasted his toes by the fire, drove on to Nome, taking three hours, 15 minutes for the trip.

Upon discovering that Kasson had gone by, Rohn hitched up his team and followed through the blizzard, reaching Nome in an hour and 15 minutes.

Kasson declared that he had no deliberate intention of violating orders handed him by Pete Olson at Golovin Bay, but that with the blizzard raging, he thought his husky dogs could weather it better than Rohn's lighter, speedier team.

"It's a good thing Kasson did it," Dr. Curn Welch cheerily asserted today. "It's given the town something to talk about and taken our minds off the epidemic—upon which, in a way of speaking, we have a 'tail hold and a downhill drag.'"

Delinquency Is Formal Charge Against 'Raiders'

Deputy District Attorney D. G. Wetlin today filed an information in Superior Judge F. C. Drumm's court, charging four anti-saloon league detectives, Walter E. Ward, Mrs. E. R. Wall, E. B. Ward and Frank Martin, with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The defendants were not in court. Their answer to the charge will be made next Friday at 9:30 a. m.

The operatives are accused by Ivory Shields, 20, of this city, who claims they induced him to purchase liquor.

Delay Sentence In Deckert Case

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—Motion for a new trial for Matthew Deckert, convicted slayer of Walter Power, was filed with Superior Judge Charles Crall here today, and Feb. 16 set as the date to hear arguments in the appeal.

Sentence will not be pronounced on Deckert pending outcome of the motion of re-trial of the case. Deckert was found guilty of first degree murder, and a sentence of life imprisonment recommended by the jury.

DOCTORS SAY RANCHER DID NOT MEET DEATH BECAUSE OF FALL FROM WINDMILL

Blame Heavy Blow With Blunt Instrument For Tragedy

FRESNO, Cal., Feb. 13.—That Lee Camp, wealthy Kings county rancher was murdered December 14, and did not meet his death as the result of a fall from a windmill tower, was the declaration of Drs. C. H. Kjaerbye of Fresno and Ralph Motherall of Hanford, following a second autopsy over the ex-husband body of Camp at the Lyle and Ross morgue here last night.

Camp was struck with a heavy instrument and the blow was struck either from behind the victim or while he was stopping over, account for the skull fractures, in

Nominations Now Before Senate Not to Be Withdrawn

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—President Coolidge has sent word to his senate leaders that he will not withdraw the three important nominations he recently sent up to the capitol, which are now involved in difficulties threatening their confirmation.

These are the appointments of Charles B. Warren to be attorney general; Thomas F. Woodlock, to be member of the interstate commerce commission and William E. Humphrey to be a member of the federal trade commission.

The President takes the position that nominations are satisfactory to him, that he made them after careful study and that if the senate doesn't like them it can do what it pleases.

ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNS WEAK FOR DEFENSE, CLAIM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—"Several thousand anti-aircraft guns couldn't stop a single bombing airplane from dropping death on an American city," Captain "Eddie" Rickenbacker, greatest of American "aces" told the house aircraft committee today.

"They might destroy the plane, but the damage would be done first," Rickenbacker said, ridiculing the statement of Brigadier General Hugh Drum that Washington could be defended from an air attack by 12 guns.

The secretaries of war and the navy and the army general staff are responsible for lack of development of an adequate air force in this country, he said, supporting the plea of Brigadier General "Billy" Mitchell, assistant army air chief, for a unification of army, navy and air mail flying services.

"STOP EASTERN WAIL WITH SANTA ANA MAIL" LETTER WRITING CAMPAIGN SLOGAN

By unanimous vote of its membership, the Round Table of Santa Ana yesterday endorsed the personal letter campaign of the Santa Ana Ad club, The Santa Ana Register and the Los Angeles Times to offset the propaganda being spread in eastern and middlewestern newspapers against Southern California.

The action of the Round Table followed closely a similar endorsement by the chamber of commerce. The letter by A. L. Olinger, secretary of the chamber, published on page one of yesterday's Register, was authorized by the board of directors of the chamber at its regular weekly meeting.

Following is the recommendation of the Santa Ana Round Table:

"Whereas, undoubtedly considerable damage has been done to Southern California's richly deserved and honestly earned reputation for superior attractiveness and resourcefulness, by ignorant, incorrect and even absolutely false stories published in various newspapers throughout the country.

"We the Loyal Knights of the Round Table of Santa Ana do hereby urgently request members of the Round Table of Santa Ana to co-operate in this movement of the personal letter campaigns of the Santa Ana Ad club, the Los Angeles Times and the Santa Ana Register for the purpose of correcting the false stories and giving correct information about Southern California in general and Santa Ana and Orange County in particular."

"Stop the eastern wail with Santa Ana mail" was the slogan adopted by the Santa Ana Ad club yesterday.

The advertising club yesterday when they met at St. Ann's Inn. The committee selected this slogan, submitted by W. H. Hanley, advertising manager of the Register, as being the most suitable of all the slogans suggested. It will appear on all advertising and printed matter used in putting over the Ad club's letter drive. Chairman D. L. Coover reported that Superintendent Cranston of the local schools had promised 100 per cent co-operation from his teachers in putting over the campaign with the school children. Ad club letter barrels will be spotted all over Santa Ana for one week prior to March 4, when they will be picked up and the boosting letters mailed. All letters should be dated March 4, and stamped ready for the post office. Secretary A. L. Olinger of the chamber of commerce has placed the machinery of the chamber's information bureau at the disposal of the Ad club and any letter writer running short of Santa Ana data can get a fresh supply by calling phone 222. Ad club speakers will appear before the various luncheon clubs of the city before the week's campaign is launched, requesting cooperation in making Santa Ana Letter Day a real success.

WARRANT IS ISSUED IN UTAH CITY

Mrs. Refugio Alameda Said to Be In Santa Ana; May Nab 'Suspect'

THE HAND OF THE LAW was poised today over Mrs. Refugio Alameda, who is alleged to be living in Santa Ana as Mrs. Eugene Bassett, 1818 West Fourth street.

With the receipt here of press dispatches from Salt Lake City, announcing that a formal complaint had been filed there charging Mrs. Alameda with murder, the sheriff's office was awaiting a warrant before taking action. Sheriff Jernigan had not been officially advised of the complaint.

Filing of the murder charge, as reported from the Utah city, followed a recent statement by Pedro Cano, who accused Mrs. Alameda as he was about to be executed himself for the crime now charged against her. Cano's execution was delayed for an investigation of his story, which apparently developed into definite action against Mrs. Alameda.

The murder of a woman, June St. Clair, in Utah, was the crime charged against Cano and now laid at the door of Mrs. Alameda.

Much doubt has been expressed here regarding the claim that Mrs. Bassett is the woman wanted in Utah. At the time the Cano story was first published, an investigation was made here and the Bassetts, husband and wife, both denied that Mrs. Bassett knew anything of the affair. They had been living in this city several years, they claimed, and knew no such person as Cano, June St. Clair or Mrs. Alameda. At that time Mrs. Bassett expressed a willingness to meet her accusers.

The report that she is Mrs. Alameda came from Cano's sisters, who admitted, however, that they and never seen Mrs. Alameda.

Baby Girl Wins Probation for Accused Father

Robert Sackman's baby daughter won probation for him today when he stood before Superior Judge Z. B. West for judgment in connection with his plea of guilty to a check kiting charge.

Tears shed in Sackman's eyes as the court reminded him of the daughter's future and what effect her father's record might have upon it. He begged for another chance to "make good," and got it. He was placed on probation for ten years, with orders to report once a month for the first year, and once every two months during the second year, after that semi-annually.

Sackman admitted that he had written a number of worthless checks over a period of two or three years. He is a native of Santa Ana, he said.

Manacle Pair as Alleged Plot to Escape Is Bared

D. W. Hoyle and H. W. Holland, who pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny, and were sentenced by Superior Judge R. Y. Williams late Wednesday to serve terms of one year each at San Quentin, were today enroute to prison under close guard.

Special watch was occasioned by an asserted plot on the part of the two criminals to overpower their guard and escape. This was overheard by a "trusty" at county jail, who reported it to the jailer. As a result, Doyle and Holland were manacled before being taken from jail to the court-room, and then to the Anaheim city jail. They were taken north to prison from Anaheim, by Constable Marion.

BAVARIAN WAITER HANGED
WHEATON, Ill., Feb. 13.—John Kammerer, 47, Bavarian waiter, was hanged here today for the murder of a family of five because of a debt of $12.

"30" BULLETINS

FULLERTON, Feb. 13.—Following his refusal to resign, as requested by the city board of trustees, Chief of Police Arthur Eells today was discharged by the trustees, meeting in special session. Patrolman F. C. Yates was appointed temporary chief.

Police Skeptical of "Confession"

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 13.—Columbus police were skeptical today of the alleged confession in the Sheatsley furnace mystery, at Birmingham, Ala.

Police Chief French and County Prosecutor John King said they believed the unidentified man who told Birmingham authorities last night he snuffed Mrs. Addie Sheatsley's body in the Lutheran personage furnace, is crazy. His story, however, will be investigated.

Longworth Is Asked to Give up Place

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The race for the speakership in the next congress took a dramatic turn today when Representative Britten, Illinois, manager of the candidacy of Representative Martin B. Madden, Illinois, in a statement urged Representative Longworth, Ohio, to withdraw to permit the Illinois member to achieve the "Capstone" of his long political career.

Britten said if Longworth would "gracefully" retire from the contest and make certain Madden's election, Madden would retire from congress at the expiration of one term as presiding officer.

FIGURES SHOW HIGH STANDING OF S. A. PUPILS

Accusations that high school students of today attended wild parties and frequent dance halls were hotly denied by Wm. M. Clayton, vice-principal of the Santa Ana Polytechnic high school, in giving out at the school assembly, the report of the student conduct as indicated by the merit system of self-government.

"Sometimes," Clayton said, "we hear speakers, long on coat tails and short on common sense, who tell us that students today are becoming worse because of the present day pace."

"All their statements are groundless," asserted Clayton as he went on to prove his point with the figures of the demerits issued by the fifty-six faculty members and including the "bus" drivers who transport students.

"During the last year when the merit system was instituted here on trial there have been 72 students who have never had a blemish on their record, according to Clayton. This he holds to be exceptional."

"In the last quarter," Clayton said further, "there were 386 students in school who maintained a perfect record." At this point the student body before whom he was speaking broke out in extended applause.

"Since there are approximately 920 students enrolled here for the last semester, the number with perfect rating form 42 per cent of the student body," Clayton estimated.

"Another 338 students did not fall below 95 merits. There were 98 more who had between 90 and 94 merits."

"We find by the figures that the total number of students with ratings above 90 merits make up 90 per cent of the entire enrollment. This leaves a minority of 10 per cent of the students who fell below."

"Sixty students ranked in the eighties and there were sixteen who had between 70 and 79 merits. In the final class there were twelve students who are below 70."

"Concerning these students in the lowest class, the less said the better," Clayton declared. "They form but one and a half per cent of the students but it is by them that the school is largely judged by unthinking critics."

"The actions of one of these 12 students reflects on the entire school. His misconduct is applied by outside observers to all the students. Though representing a very small minority, he has a potent influence in giving the school a bad reputation."

The merit system, Clayton believes, is an unqualified success from the results of its operation.

"After years of experiment with different plans the merit system has proven the best for student body self-government. This record Santa Ana high school has made is winning national notice," Clayton said that he had already received inquiries from other schools and even from university presidents concerning the success of the plan.

SEE ELECTION IN SCHOOL SECESSION

County Superintendent of Schools R. P. Mitchell intimated today that the Olinda elementary school district, co-operating with the Brea elementary school district in a movement to establish a separate high school district, will be able to complete its petition with sufficient signatures to meet the requirements of the law.

He added that a supplementary petition is expected to be filed today by the parties in charge of the secession movement containing additional signatures.

If the Olinda petition is found sufficient, a call for a special election in the Brea and the Olinda elementary school district for the purpose of creating a union high school district will be issued early next week, Mitchell said, adding that in probability the election would be held on or about Tuesday, March 17.

'DIG, DUMP' IS MOTTO OF WORKERS IN CAVERN

Hopes Buoyed Up Dashed When New Shaft Leads to Blank Wall

UNNAMED HEROES OF RESCUE LAUDED

Miners Ask No Glory, Praise For Tireless Effort to Free Explorer

AT THE MOUTH OF SAND CAVE, Ky., Feb. 13.—"Dig on!" That still was the word at the shaft being sunk toward Floyd Collins' living tomb today.

Tense excitement caused by discovery of a pocket crevice 16 inches wide caused reports to be flashed over the country first that Collins had been heard to call and later that he had been taken out alive.

Denhardt Rushes to Cave
All not directly connected with the rescue work were ordered back from the shaft when workers reported discovery of the crevice to H. T. Carmichael, in charge of the operations.

Brigadier General H. H. Denhardt, military commander, rushed to the scene from Cave City. Red Cross nurses and doctors were told to be "ready for anything."

Then a rescue worker entered the shaft. He crawled along it for 25 feet. Then he met a blank wall. So the excitement died and diggers went back to work. They were heartened by the hope that another crevice might prove more fruitful.

Drive Horizontal Tunnel
Drilling made early today as far down as the 25 foot level had failed to indicate any cavities and it was assured the sole means of getting at Collins was to drive a horizontal tunnel from the shaft.

The unnamed heroes of Sand Cave—what of them?
Here they toil, hours, days; shift after shift. They ask no glory. They offer no comment.

"Dig and dump!"
These three words sum up their philosophy. Grubby, gray faces. Blood-shot eyes. Shoulders stooped by hours with pick and shovel. Eagerly they lower themselves into the shaft. Wearily they emerge.

But not a word.
"Dig and dump!"

No blame for Collins because he deliberately crawled into this trap. No hint of the chance that they themselves may be caught if the walls give way and mash down on them. To them it is just:

"Dig and dump!"
Take one man from Cincinnati, for example. A barrel-chested fellow, stout of heart, stern of nerve. Of his own accord he came here to do what he could.

"I'm a miner," he said. "I'm going to find Collins because he'd do the same for me. We learn that about each other, we guys who dig like this for a living. I didn't come here to spread myself in the papers. You leave my name out, it's up to his buddies to get him out. Soft pedal the glory, see?"

WASTED TAXES

Only fifty cents of the dollar you pay in taxes goes for schools, roads and other public improvements. The rest is waste and "gravy for the boys."

Governor Vic Donahey of Ohio says the taxpayer's dollar is never more than fifty per cent. potent—because of politics.

"It is hard to secure the enactment of any law that has no jobs attached and has nothing to recommend it except its merits," he asserts.

Because the voters liked his program of economy, Governor Donahey, a Democrat, was re-elected by 176,000 last November at the same time Ohio went for the Republican President by 700,000.

He has written an article for THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN that bristles with his fight against wasted taxes—waste that is rampant everywhere. Read Fifty-Cent Tax Dollars, in the February 14th issue now on sale.

Read The County Ring, in the February 28th issue.

Cow Country Romance

The days of romance and adventure in the Western cow country are gone but not forgotten. When the old trail drivers meet, they tell again the thrilling tales of the long drives from Texas to Montana, of fights with Indians and desperadoes, when a man had to be quick with his rope and quicker with his gun.... In the February 14th issue of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN J. Frank Dobie tells some of the wild adventures of The Old Trail Drivers.

Sin of Home Missions

Competition in religion makes the country church the sore spot in American religious life. Too many churches, or no church at all—this is the story in thousands of communities. Why? Dr. Charles J. Galpin, sociologist of the Department of Agriculture, lays the blame squarely on the boards of Home Missions. His article, The Sin of the Home Missions, in the February 14th issue of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, is brutally frank—but frankly true.

OPPOSE PLAN TO ANNEX MORE LAND

Matters of importance to three farm centers, La Habra, Garden Grove and Tustin, were discussed at meetings held last night.

Farmers near La Habra are not in favor of the proposal to annex additional territory to the city, according to talks made at the center gathering last evening. W. L. York and M. J. Pickering talked against the proposition and Howard Roberts of the chamber of commerce spoke in favor of the idea. It was brought out by York that the farmers are paying $25,000 in taxes for road improvement as against $2000 which the city is paying.

Harold Rathbone of the United States weather bureau, told of the importance of overhead irrigation, proper soil moisture and windbreaks.

At the Garden Grove gathering, a program of work for this year was drawn up. Committees were named as follows: Citrus, A. C. Stanley; walnuts, S. W. Holt; sweet potatoes, Ed. Chaffee; poultry, W. H. Stennett and Roy Oldfield; peppers, J. A. Knapp.

A two-act playlet was presented by members of the El Toro center. Harold E. Wahlberg, county agricultural agent, gave an illustrated lecture on "Wind Injury in

NAB ENGINEER FOR ATTEMPT AT BLACKMAIL

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—Richard Edward Nordstrom, 28, civil engineer and former University of Wisconsin athlete, was held in the county jail here today on a sensational charge of attempted blackmail, pending investigation by the federal grand jury.

Nordstrom was arrested on complaint of Mrs. M. Andrews, of Salt Lake City, who charged the young university graduate tried to extort $2500 from her by threatening to "expose" her for an alleged indiscretion in a hotel room in San Francisco.

According to post office inspectors, Nordstrom admitted sending the woman a blackmail letter, in which he accused her of registering at a San Francisco hotel with "a Mr. F. A. Nordstrom." The letter, it was charged, threatened exposure unless Mrs. Andrews sent the sum of $2500.

"I was nearly broke and so I just decided to scare Mrs. Andrews by threatening her," the youth told officers.

At the Tustin center meeting last night, the members passed favorably upon three legislative proposals, i. e., elimination of tax exempt securities, taxation of public utilities and the three-eighths, five-eighths plan of re-apportionment.

William Mertz, El Modena, superintendent of the Hewes ranch, spoke on "Seasonal Irrigation." W. M. Cory, assistant farm adviser, spoke upon a program of work. A committee will be appointed to follow out his suggestions. Felton Browning was elected secretary to succeed L. J. Pipplatt, resigned.

Bride-elect Honored At Final Affair Ere Wedding

Offering the final pre-nuptial courtesy with which friends have delighted to honor Miss Grace Ludwick and her betrothal to Carl Wiesseman, was a charmingly planned party held last night at the F. F. Stockbrand home on East Twelfth street.

The party was a reunion of members of the Junior Philathea class of the First M. E. Sunday school of which Miss Ludwick has been an active member since childhood. Miss Mary Guyer was to have entertained but unexpected developments made it necessary to change the plans and the home of Miss Thelma Stockbrand was chosen instead.

Miss Jeanne Wilson and Miss Kathleen McNulty were in charge of entertainment plans and following their instructions, the guests cut out magazine illustrations and formed clever little booklets illustrating life histories of Miss Ludwick and her fiancé.

At the refreshment hour the bride-elect was given place of honor at one large table surrounded by several small ones. A lovely bride-bouquet lamp centered the table, the bride clasping a bouquet of white hyacinths and lilies of the valley. Candles aided in illuminating the pretty scene and were used to center the smaller tables.

At the place of Miss Ludwick was a beautiful shower bouquet of white sweet peas, suggestive of the wedding which is to be a valentine event tomorrow at Whittier with the Rev. John Oliver officiating. Philathea members also took the opportunity of presenting to their friend, two handsome pieces of silver, a pickle fork and an olive spoon which complete the set of "Ancestral" pattern table silver which Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wiesseman are presenting their son and his bride for a wedding gift. A menu of fruit salad, waters, coffee, heart shaped ice cream and individual frosted cakes were served.

Miss Stockbrand was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. F. F. Stockbrand. Guests included the class teacher, Mrs. Samuel M. Davis, the former teacher, Miss Ludwick's aunt, Mrs. Pearl E. Morse, and the Misses Ludwick, honoree, Stockbrand, hostess, Mary Guyer, Beatrice Cartwright, Jeanne Wilson, Muriel Kuhl, Vivian Smith, Ernestine Swindler, Ruth Oakes, Kathleen McNulty and Ruth Angel.

College Folk Meet For Gay Evening

One of the weeks gay affairs among college young people, was a pretty party given by Miss Mary Dunstan at the East Seventeenth street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunstan where she was enjoying a brief vacation from her studies at University of Southern California.

A variety of games and amusements had been provided with mah jong prominent among the favorites. In harmony with the season the decorations were in valentine colors and motifs and at a late hour when refreshments were served the appropriate heart symbols marked small cakes served and deep valentine reds were apparent in the delicious fruit punch.

Gathered for the evening of pleasure with Miss Dunstan were her sister, Miss Frances Dunstan, the Misses Florence Boose of Los Angeles, Ethel Osterman, Evelyn Whitman, Lydia Fields, Frances Jones, Laura Jones, Ernestine Swindler, Messrs. Willard Bozman, Wendell Albright, Walter Bash, Los Angeles; Harry Whitney, Ernest Boynton, Ralph Fields, Gilbert Dunstan, George Gromell and Len Fields of this community.

Business Women's Club
Members who failed to attend last Monday's luncheon of the Business and Professional Women's club at St. Ann's Inn and hence did not sign the paper signifying their intention of attending the valentine party next Monday night, are asked by the February committee, the Misses Helen Gallagher, Teresa McDonough and Virginia Craig, to telephone a member of the trio at the earliest opportunity. The party will be at the home of Miss Mary Smart, 714 North Main street and the program committee promises many events of interest and entertainment. The merriment will begin at 8 o'clock.

Household Economics
At a pleasant luncheon held Wednesday at the A. G. Flagg home on North Broadway, the hostesses with Mrs. Flagg, Mrs. Charles W. Yonge and Mrs. H. J. Selway, welcomed the members of Ebells' Second Household Economics section. Valentine symbols and posies prevailed and an enjoyable luncheon was served. At the business session following the luncheon, Mrs. A. P. Nelson presided. Roll call answered by southern customs, brought out many interesting and entertaining facts regarding the old south and days 'befo' de war. Mrs. Emrys D. White, program chairman for the afternoon, introduced Mr. Carroll from the linen department of a prominent Los Angeles department store who gave a most interesting talk on linens, illustrated by many beautiful pieces which he displayed.

Guest Group Motors To Los Angeles For Luncheon

Quite a little reunion of former friends was staged pleasantly in Los Angeles yesterday when a number of young matrons of this city motored in to attend a smart luncheon in which Mrs. Jennie Hunter honored Miss Esther Ringquist of Boston, Mass.

Miss Ringquist is a charming easterner who has been visiting the winter in southern California and who, as house-guest for two weeks of Dr. and Mrs. Clayton R. Lane in this city, won many admiring friends and was the incentive for several smart little parties.

Yesterday's luncheon was given at the Mary Louise where Mrs. Hunter assembled her guests around one long table centered with all the colorful blossoms of a California spring. A deeper color note was sounded in the tulle bow tied on the basket handle, a bowl employing all American Beauty shades whose vividness was repeatedly in pretty place cards.

Covers were placed for hostess and honor guest, Mrs. Hunter and Miss Ringquist and for Mesdames H. R. Bigler, Roscoe Griffith, Ward Sutton, George Matthews and Miss Carolyn Matthews of Los Angeles, Mesdames Clayton R. Lane, James E. Livesey Jr., Don Andrews and Preston of this city and Mrs. Kendrick of Anaheim.

Following the luncheon the friendly little group found such pleasure in social chat and in the fashion show, that cards and kindred forms of entertainment were disregarded and the afternoon devoted to informal companionship alone.

Frills of Bygone Day Will Be Featured At Ebells Party

Hoop-skirts, laces, frills, patches, powdered hair and all the airs and graces of that colorful period of American history, colonial days, will be evidence at Ebells club Monday afternoon when Mrs. E. L. Morrison presents her long-anticipated colonial party.

Ebells members are expected to ask their friends to share in the varied pleasures of the afternoon and as many as can are expected to be in costume. All members of the hostess group with Mrs. Morrison, Mesdames J. A. Gardiner, Charles F. Mitchell, Fred M. Robinson, J. B. Stewart, C. F. Crose, W. B. Williams, E. H. Prince, George S. Smith, W. W. Anderson, Miss Inez Cloyes and Miss Pauline Parsons, will be appropriately gowned and it is said that there will be some rarely beautiful old period gowns, now family heirlooms, brought from cedar chests for the occasion.

The banquet room for which mah jong and other games, such contests will not be given special prominence over other forms of entertainment. Mrs. Morrison has planned a colonial program of song and story that offers many interesting details and interesting artists. Then too, true to history, needlework will be emphasized in an afternoon's pleasure and in the lounge, Miss Cloyes and Mrs. W. W. Anderson will preside with their knitting or tatting or the special form of needlecraft which they wish to assume with their period gowns.

At the tea hour, the hostess promises some interesting effects in old china and silver, to say nothing of some beautiful examples of colonial candelabra which are being loaned for the event.

Ebells Section Dance
Tomorrow Night
"We've cut out a billion red hearts—more or less—for decorations," today announced Mrs. Edward B. Van Meter heading the general committee of Ebells' First Current Events section which is planning such a delightful valentine dance for tomorrow night at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Van Meter's "billion hearts" will make the spacious ball-room look very like a big valentine itself and the effect will be heightened by other appropriate decorations arranged by Mrs. J. G. Rose and her committee and by the pretty dancing frocks which the young matrons of the section and their guests will wear.

The committee on general arrangements, Mrs. Van Meter, Mrs. Charles V. Doty, Mrs. Norah Lentz and Mrs. Arthur May, will be further assisted by Mrs. W. H. Fairbanks who will arrange for the refreshment fruit punch and Mrs. Jesse Goodman who will select the prizes to be given in special dances.

Chapman's orchestra will be present and dancing will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock. Guests have been assured that competent maid service would prevail in the cloak rooms where a careful watch will be maintained.

S. A. Conservatory to Be Aided on Program By Soprano Soloist

In announcing the details of the program of the initial recital of the Santa Ana Conservatory of Music, D. C. Cianfoni, founder and head of the conservatory, today stated that Marie Bishop had consented to give a group of songs. The recital will be one of the leading events of next week and will be held at Ebells auditorium Tuesday night, February 17, beginning at 8 o'clock.

While many invitations have been issued for the event, it was declared that all music lovers would be welcomed, regardless of their having received a personal card. Much of the program will be presented by the heads of the different departments, although a number of talented pupils will be given prominence.

Mrs. Bishop who will give one song group, is head of the voice department. A number of her pupils will be presented in subsequent recitals. Another interesting event will be the clarinet solo by Lyle Roberts, one of the most popular pupils of the conservatory who is studying under Mr. Cianfoni. The young musician will play a number from the Thomas opera "Mignon."

Miss Nellie Chapman will play an interesting piano duet with her teacher, Miss June Hartman, of the piano department. The conservatory faculty consists of D. C. Cianfoni, teacher of wind instruments, harmony and composition; June Hartman, Ruth Garrison and Earl Fraser, teachers of piano; Orlow Mathews, violin; Marie Bishop, voice; and Gladys Simpson Shafer, dramatic expression.

Warm Friends Meet At Pretty Dinner

One of the pleasant affairs of last week was the pretty little dinner party at which Miss Ida May of 319 West Third street entertained a coterie of her friends.

The table was beautifully appointed with linens and silver, and a valentine motif was carried out in the decorations. A delicious three-course menu was served. Besides the hostess and her father, George Nay, covers were laid for Miss Jennie Lasby, Miss Grace Roberts, Miss Mayme Havens and Miss Lula Minter, who whiled away the evening hours happily with social chat.

Birthday Surprise Is Arranged For Guests Instead of Hostess

When Miss Golda V. Cook, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, entertained a group of friends recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lee, 709 Lacy street, the guests were bidden to a birthday party to celebrate the natal day of the hostess, only to discover later that the underlying motive for the gay evening was far more romantic.

Cupids and hearts figured largely in the decorations, and seemed entirely appropriate to the valentine season which was stressed in flowers and other decorations as well. Games and music offered a happy evening and it was not until the refreshment period when the guests read clever verses on their rose-petal placards at the table, that they learned that Mr. and Mrs. Lee were announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Cook to Mr. Kenneth McCubbin.

While they were voicing their happy wishes for the young couple, the guests took the opportunity to shower Miss Cook with the many lovely gifts which they had brought for her birthday and which will be equally useful and beautiful in the new home to be established.

Neither Miss Cook nor Mr. McCubbin would disclose the date of their wedding but admitted that it would be an event of early summer. Their home will be established in this city where Mr. McCubbin is retail route foreman with the Excelsior Creamery company.

Enjoying the birthday event and its charming surprise feature with Miss Cook were Mr. McCubbin, Mrs. Irene Litten, Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Lander, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lee and son Vernon Lee, and Mr. Roland Merdenhall. Out of town guests included Mr. Morgan of Venice, Miss Violet Dickson of Los Angeles.

Radioland Welcomes Bride and Groom

A wedding of much quiet charm was held in this city Wednesday, Feb. 11 when Miss Sarah Jane Bates and William Weaver of Los Angeles were married at the First Presbyterian manse by the Rev. William E. Roberts, following preliminary arrangements made by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bladen.

Accompanied by John O'Neill who assisted Mr. Weaver as best man, the happy couple drove down from Los Angeles just in time for the high noon ceremony which was followed by a pretty luncheon at the Bladen home, 928 Fairview avenue. In the late afternoon Miss Ada Brown joined the wedding party and Mr. and Mrs. Bladen were hosts at a delightfully planned dinner followed by a radio party.

The party gave an unexpected pleasure to the newly-weds who were astounded to hear "The Town Crier" at the Hollywood Station KNX ask for a special musical number "in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver, just wedded in Santa Ana."

The young people will make their home in Pasadena where Mr. Weaver is established in business.

HOLE THROUGH TUNNEL RACE WAXES WARM

HUNTINGTON LAKE, Calif., Feb. 13.—Twenty-three hundred feet under the surface of Kaiser mountain a strange contest is being waged between competing crews, for the honor of "holing through" the final link of the 13½-mile tunnel under construction by the Southern California Edison company, which will connect Florence and Huntington lakes and divert the waters of the San Joaquin river.

Working 24 hours a day, six construction crews of the Edison company are approaching the point where the final blast will be set off, and there remains but 152 feet to be bored before completion of the tunnel, which has been under construction for four years, will cost $17,000,000 and which is the longest tunnel of its bore in the world.

As soon as the debris is cleared away following the final blast, tracks will be laid through the tunnel and George C. Ward, vice president of the Edison company and builder of the tunnel, will head the first party to traverse its entire length.

Within a month after completion of the tunnel the waters of the San Joaquin river will be diverted from its bed through the tunnel, to augment the reservoir at Huntington lake.

Newspapermen, magazine writers, camera men and company officials who are on the ground awaiting completion of the tunnel took a trip today through the completed portion of the tunnel and emerged through one of the construction entrances.

A grand march and ball, led by Ward and Mrs. Jack London, was given last night by the Mile High club in honor of the writers and other visitors, following a banquet given in the mess hall at the Casca construction camp.

Why We Claim So Much for AGMEL

IN ever increasing numbers men and women throughout the United States and Canada, as well as in Europe, by taking Agmel are gaining permanent relief from all manner of diseases, especially high blood pressure, diabetes, Bright's disease, bladder trouble, acute indigestion and various forms of neurasthenia.

What is the Secret of Agmel?

Twenty years ago the therapeutic value of Agmel would have been accepted by some as one of the verities of life and by others with a grain of salt. But in the light of modern scientific knowledge the curative powers of Agmel are easily understood and readily believed in. It has been proved beyond question that Agmel contains a superabundance of all the recently discovered vitamins as well as mineral salts constantly needed by the body.

What is Agmel?

8,000 feet above sea level in the Valley of Mexico there grows a gigantic plant called the Manso Maguey. Centuries ago it was observed that those who regularly partook of the sap of this plant were invariably free from diseases of the kidneys, bladder and prostate. In late years much energy and money has been spent by many in attempting to preserve this sap, called Agumiel, for shipment. Those who offer Agmel are the only ones to succeed.

At last, after 14 years of ceaseless experimentation, they have wholly accomplished their purpose, having in Agmel, the original sap of the Manso Maguey, with nothing added to it or taken away except water. No heat used in the concentration process.

Agmel Removes Cause of Disease—Nature Cures

It is now generally known that the average person's daily intake of food is not a perfect diet. Something is missing from it the lack of which will sooner or later give rise to one disease or another symptomatic of imperfect assimilation and faulty elimination. This missing element, of course, is the vitamin.

Agmel supplies the vitamins—all of them—as well as a plentiful supply of mineral salts. Thus Agmel mends the breaks, cleanses the system of toxic poison and starts the user on the road back to health. Nature completes the cure.

Agmel is Unique

NORTHERN END OF COUNTY IS WELL SOAKED

The "million dollar" rain anticipated in Orange county yesterday did not materialize, although the small amount of moisture precipitated was of inestimable value to grain growing on dry lands.

According to the gauge of Hill and Son, the fall for the 24 hours ending at 7 a. m., today, was .13 of an inch, making the total for the storm .29 of an inch and for the season, 2.71. At this date last year, the record was 5.40 inches.

In the twenty-four hour period the north end of the county fared better than the south half, it was revealed by rain data. Anaheim reported .29 of an inch, 40 of an inch for the storm and 3.25 inches for the season, as against 2.63 for this date last year.

Louis Moulton, of El Toro, reported .07 of an inch at that point. At the home ranch on the Irvine ranch .16 of an inch fell in the twenty-four hours, making 2.87 for the season. At the warehouse at Irvine, the precipitation was only .04 of an inch.

Old Jupiter almost slipped over Orange, but was considerate enough to drop .10 of an inch in that vicinity, making the season total 3.32, as against 3.87 for the same date a year ago.

Apparently Fullerton fared better than any section of the county, the fall being .56 of an inch, increasing the season total to 4.84 inches. Last year the total for

WARNS OF WAR AT MEMORIAL MEETING HERE

After a brilliant eulogy of the four war presidents, Washington, Lincoln, McKinley and Wilson, Captain L. W. Blodgett, commander of the county council of the American Legion, and city attorney of Huntington Beach, warned his audience at the memorial meeting last Wednesday night of another war.

The memorial for the great war presidents was held in the high school auditorium and was attended by a representative gathering of patriotic people from the various organizations of Orange county. The meeting was sponsored by Calumet Camp, Spanish War Veterans, Troop No. 10, Boy Scouts, was presided over by Lee of Brea, the patriotic instructor of Calumet Camp, and the program included selections by the Fullerton Union high school band; singing of "America" by the audience; invocation, by Chaplain F. M. Grigby, of Sedgwick Post, Grand Army of the Republic; cornet solo, by a member of the band; baritone solo and encore by Mrs. Sara Hatfield, female baritone from the Orpheum circuit; addresses by Capt. Blodgett, and Prof. Stoner of the Orange high school; solo and encore by Prof. D. C. Clafoni on his famous valve trombone, and the rendition of the national hymn, "The Star Spangled Banner," by the band.

In stating that the United States must prepare for another war, Capt. Blodgett, in his address, said that strife would come from within and not from outside conditions, and that insidious propaganda was constantly being disseminated throughout the land. The speaker urged his hearers of the necessity of combating this.

Prof. Stoner also spoke of the four war presidents, all lovers of peace, but reluctantly forced into war, and of the five foundations of democracy. In the course of his remarks he stated that democracy is yet in its experimental stage, that Russian propaganda is being spread over the United States of America, and that all must uphold personal liberty and respect for law, by voicing opinions fearlessly against any law believed to be wrong, but by obeying that law as long as it remains upon the statute books.

Captain Grigby and the two speakers of the evening laid stress upon the belief that in the important crises of the nation God had raised up men fitting and able to lead the nation, and Capt. Blodgett proclaimed the fact that every important document of state and nation appealed to God and that even upon the American coin appear the words, "In God We Trust."

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action: It soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic cough and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Prominent Social, Welfare
Enthusiasts Will Give Talks at Sessions

With more than 300 workers and supporters, many of them prominent business and professional men, from all parts of the state, in attendance, the annual state convention of the Y. M. C. A. will be opened this afternoon by George W. McDougall, of Sacramento, chairman of the 1924 state convention.

Rev. W. E. Roberts, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the devotional service, following which committees will be appointed to handle the business of the big meet, and plans will be laid for the various details of the program.

All of the convention delegates were expected to be in the city by noon today, and a large number of visitors and supporters, including distinguished guests, are due late tonight and tomorrow. Ample hotel accommodations have been reserved at St. Ann's Inn and Hotel Santa Ana.

Hold Banquet Tonight

This evening at 6:30 o'clock the convention will get fully underway with a big convention banquet at the Ebell club. This affair, listed as one of the main events of the convention, will bring together the delegates and visitors from out of the city in a delightful social event. In addition to the address by Fred B. Smith, internationally known "Y" and social welfare worker and noted author, there will be a greeting from O. H. Barr, president of the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. and short talks by several young men, representing various phases of the Y. M. C. A. work. Robert L. Brown and Ray Miles, both members of the local association, will be heard in a group of songs. C. C. Chapman, of Fullerton, nationally known "Y" worker and supporter, president of the Y. M. C. A. state committee, will preside over the banquet.

A record breaking attendance is expected for tonight's event. Ralph C. A majority of the dinner guests will come from out of town places: Los Angeles, San Diego, Pomona, Riverside, Glendale, Whittier, Long Beach sending large delegations.

LEIBER'S APPEARANCE IN 'MACBETH' TONIGHT MARKS
EVENT IN DRAMA CIRCLES

Fritz Leiber, Shakespearean actor, shown in different characterizations of his repertoire. The actor and his company appear tonight at the high school auditorium in "Macbeth."

Capable Interpretation of Difficult Roles Is Insured

Presaging an important event in the community and dramatic life of Santa Ana, Fritz Leiber tonight will appear in "Macbeth" at 8:15 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Fritz Leiber and his company of 28 actors were engaged to present the famous Shakespearean tragedy-drama here through the City Teachers' League.

From the time the curtain rises until the last line of the final scene, the performance tonight promises to be of rapid and well delineated. As evidence of the perfection of stage arrangement reached by the Fritz Leiber company, it is said that they require no waits between scenes but proceed from the first act right through the play without a break.

The reputation Fritz Leiber has gained as the "most distinguished young American actor" interpreting Shakespeare "on the stage today" is attested to by Santa Ana people who have seen him in his performances.

The company is making a tour starting at New York, extending right across the continent to San Diego. Yesterday the trip was completed one way with the appearance of the actors in San Diego.

On leaving here, Fritz Leiber has agreed to present plays from the nine of his repertoire in a two-weeks' run at the Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles.

It is the object of the Fritz

Leiber company, under the management of George Ford, to make the national tour an annual affair. The City Teachers' League of Santa Ana expect to make regular engagements if the response given the presentation tonight by the people of Orange county warrants its success.

STUDENTS OBSERVE
'ABE'S' BIRTHDAY

In commemoration of Lincoln's birthday, the student body assembly at the Santa Ana Polytechnic high school yesterday was addressed by William M. Clayton, vice-principal, who brought out incidents in the life of the great emancipator.

Selecting scenes about the capitol with which Lincoln was associated, Mr. Clayton illustrated his talk with stereopticon slides. The first views were of Plymouth Rock from which he reviewed through history the progress of American liberty, giving special emphasis to the part Lincoln played.

Inauguration of student body officers at the assembly was conducted. The new officers were: Victor Walker, president; Fred Johnston, vice president; Miss Annie Tarver, secretary; Miss Virginia Thatcher and Miss Margaret Carothers, girls' self-government; Warren Hamilton and George Decker, boys' self-government.

DATES OF S. A.
CIVIC CLUBS TO BE LISTED

Chamber of Commerce
Will Keep Record to Put
End to Conflicts

With approval of the board of directors, A. L. Oiger, secretary, today had inaugurated for the chamber of commerce a service which, it is believed, will be effective in eliminating a clash in dates for important community gatherings.

The secretary has been authorized to establish a master date book—a book for keeping a record of all important meetings scheduled by individuals and organizations of the community.

Individuals and organizations can co-operate by reporting to the secretary dates they have arranged for meetings. Through the master book, the secretary will be able to advise as to whether an important meeting is scheduled for a particular date, and thus, in a measure, can assist in preventing the setting of two big events for the same evening or for the same day.

The frequent clashing of dates of plays and conferences of local importance has aroused many men of the community to the necessity of a "clearing house" for dates. Robert Conway, manager of the Orange county credit bureau, called attention of the directors to the situation here and the possibility of the chamber rendering a community service by maintaining a master date book.

Oiger said that the activity will entail considerable extra work but that he is willing to assume the responsibility in the general interest of the city. He said, however, in order to make it effective, he would have to have the full cooperation of those who head activities making dates for meetings in the entire community is interested.

"Listing of dates will be the special function of the service," the secretary said. "Important events here too frequently occur on the same date, and this condition can be remedied by maintenance of the master date book."

Need More Cars
for 'Y' Visitors Says Secretary

Declaring that he was having difficulty in securing 20 automobiles needed for tomorrow afternoon to convey delegates to the Y. M. C. A. convention here to the C. C. Chapman ranch at Fullerton, A. L. Oiger, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, today again appealed to the auto owners of Santa Ana to volunteer their cars for the afternoon.

While expressing a preference for enclosed cars, the secretary said that open machines would be acceptable.

The delegates will leave the clubhouse here at 2:30 o'clock and will return by 5. Those who will volunteer use of their cars are requested to phone the chamber so that a check may be made.

To be sold to the highest bidder Wednesday, Feb. 18, 2:30 p. m. This is a 6-room house and two lots, 93-125. One block north of hospital; walnuts and fruit. See Crasher Realty Co., 310 N. Main street.

The boys were on their way to Los Angeles and the "wilds" of Hollywood, it was said. San Diego officials were notified of their capture yesterday and are today sending for them.

ALL ANGLES OF EDUCATION
SEEN IN BILLS

Covering an unusually wide range of different subjects relating to the administration and operation of public schools are the various bills introduced in the present session of the state legislature, according to advices received by City Superintendent of Schools J. A. Cranton from the state board of education.

Furnishing meals at cost to students; increasing powers of boards of education in the matter of expelling pupils for cause; prescribing courses of study in elementary schools, including "training for healthful living" and "moral and manners;" collection and administration of private funds arising from all forms of school activities are some of the phases covered by proposed legislation.

Other subjects touched upon are part-time and Americanization classes; regulating use of property surrounding public schools within four blocks; regulating private trade schools; appointing of commission to codify the school laws of California; establishment of twenty-four hour or home schools for boys and girls lacking proper home environments.

Ban School Fraternities. Sounding the death knell of school "frats" is a bill making it unlawful to organize and conduct in either elementary or secondary schools secret, oath bound fraternities.

September 9, "Admission Day," and November 11, "Armistice Day," will be school holidays, if a bill introduced to that effect, is adopted.

Defines Politician. "Politician" is one who is versed in the science of government and skilled in the art of government" reads a line from an Assembly bill providing what words and terms shall be taught and the definitions thereof in the public schools. It relates mainly to philosophy and the exact sciences.

"FIRST YEAR"
FINE VEHICLE FOR PLAYERS

Offering to Be Presented
Next Week Abounds In
Wit, Comedy Action

By HAZEL LANDERS HUMMEL
The Community Players will present "The First Year" next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at Ebell auditorium.

"The First Year"—what a lot those three small words imply. Gripping in humor and fun, one laughs repeatedly, not only at what has happened, but at what is about to happen. So cleverly are the situations approached that the anticipation adds to the keen appreciation of the amusing lines and action.

From a slow tempo at the beginning of the play, "The First Year" gathers momentum as it progresses, until the last act puts all the speed and spectacular performance of a real melodrama.

The cast is ready to give its Santa Ana audience a really fine performance. Under the capable direction of George Gowing the comedy has been whipped into such shape that those who have witnessed the rehearsals believe an overwhelming success is in store.

Friends of Community Players will find real pleasure in reading the names of the cast, some with many past successes, and some with their first appearance to be made in "The First Year." Dorothy Daxley Patterson, playing the leading feminine role, "Grace Livingston," will be remembered for her splendid work in "The Roomerant." There are many scenes calling for different heights of emotions. In the role of "Thomas Tucker," Joseph Peterson portrays the bashful lover with delightful skill and naivete. Later, in his struggle with Dick Loring, he does a very realistic piece of work.

Arthur Collins, as "Peter Barstow" was well chosen by the casting directors.

Harry Brackett will again have good scope for his versatility in the role of "Fred Livingston," father of "Grace." Appearing only in the second act, Mrs. Irma May, displays a complete understanding of her role, and is well adapted to her part of the vivacious Mrs. Barstow.

Mrs. Edith Thatcher, as the calm and loving Mrs. Livingston, portrays the part admirably.

George Miller, who plays the part of "Dr. Myron Anderson," will be remembered for his splendid work in "The Three Wise Fools" last season. He will again prove his histrionic ability in his present part.

"Dick Loring," portrayed by Herschel Clayton, is splendid as the attentive lover trying to win Grace from her bashful lover, "Tommy Tucker."

Last but not least is the role of Polly Dennis as the negro maid "Hattie." She is a "scream."

Tickets are on sale at the Santa Ana Book store, and, according to reports have met a greater advance sale than for any production of Community Players.

THE IDEAL WIFE AND MOTHER

She is the one who radiates health and happiness, ever ready for work or play, and what woman does not want to fill this role? When women are besieged by aches, pains, irregularities and mental depression they not only suffer themselves but create a gloomy atmosphere in the home. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one dependable remedy to overcome such conditions.

For three generations it has been restoring the women of America to health and strength.—Adv.

2 Stolen Cars
Are Recovered
In Bay Cities

Two Santa Ana automobiles, stolen in January, have been found, one in San Francisco and the other in Oakland, according to telegrams received here by the local police. The cars belonged to the Santora Land company, and to D. D. Hillyard, and both were stolen from downtown streets, where they were parked.

Both cars were found by police in the northern cities, evidently abandoned, on the streets, and were traced through a circular sent out from the local office by Sergeant Frank Lutz.

STUDENTS TO DEBATE MAY 22
AT CAPISTRANO

With important modifications governing this year, the Forensics contest between the high schools of Orange county is to be held at San Juan Capistrano during the afternoon of May 22 in a combined meet, it was made known today by Principal D. K. Hammond of the Santa Ana high school.

Innovations authorized this year by the committee of county principals change the contest into a highly competitive affair. Preliminary group schedules of entries between schools were done away with in favor of engaging the students in a single final contest.

As in previous years the seniors will give orations with the added proviso introduced that the orations be of four minutes' duration delivered with an hour's notice on some given phase of America's present day problems.

Students to Submit Essays. The juniors will be required to submit a personal essay of not more than 1200 words. The winning essay, decided by a paid expert judge, will alone be read at the contest, according to Hammond.

In addition to having a paid judge for the junior essay contest, it was decided by the high school principals to secure a judge, expert in oral work, to select the winners of the senior oration, sophomore treatise, and freshman reading.

Extemporaneous speaking is being emphasized in the oral contests. The subject for the senior oration is made known but an hour before the speeches and the other contests are given definite time limits.

Sophomores to Write. The sophomores are to be required to write a personal opinion, of four minutes' duration on some such topic as "My Idea of Uniform Dress in High School," "The Value of the Merit System," and "What Is an Ideal American?"

For the freshman, reading, the entrants are to be selected by the judge, a five minute selection chosen from the works of an author named some time in advance so that participants may become familiar with the general style and spirit of his works.

Students Making Increased
Effort to Qualify, Registrar Says

With ninety-one students qualifying for the honor society at the Santa Ana Polytechnic high school the roll for the last term shows more students listed than for any other quarter this year, it was revealed today by Miss Mable Whiting, faculty registrar for the local chapter of the California Scholarship federation.

High rating in scholarship and student body activities entitle the students to membership. Special privileges are accorded them by removing restrictions placed on the student body at large.

The increased number was declared by Miss Whiting to be partly due to more students making an earnest effort to qualify. There were eleven students, she said, who were admitted this quarter for the first time.

Athletes figure prominently on the list. Six girls and seven boys in the school sports are named. In citizenship eighty of the students have a record of ninety-seven or above and of these fifty-eight hold a perfect record of one hundred per cent rating.

Four students divide the honors of first place with each having six points above the required ten. These students are Miss Eleanor Turner, Miss Myrtle Ketchum, William Golden, and David Roberts.

In the following list the forty-two names marked with an asterisk denote students with four or more A grades. The roll includes: "Oscar Area," Elia Armstrong, "Maxline Armstrong, Louise Atkin.

Was She
a Fool?

To satisfy her parents, Evelyn became engaged to Eugene. But she was not happy. In her eyes, Eugene was too perfect, too gentle and too correct. The ideal lover she dreamed of had in him something of the savage. She pictured him as big, virile, masterful, brave. Then in the black frock of Alaska, a devil, disguised as Evelyn's ideal of a "man," came into her life. Followed a drama of elemental passion, fierce hate and fiercer love that was to test Eugene's manhood to the limit and try Evelyn's very soul. The outcome is as thrilling as it is unexpected. Evelyn tells the story under the title of "The Primitive Lover." Read it in True Story Magazine for March.

NEW VIEW OF LINCOLN IS GIVEN CLUB

Presenting the viewpoint of the typical southerner on Abraham Lincoln, R. R. Miller, county probation officer, entertained the Lions' club yesterday with a discussion on the martyred president distinctly different from the customary eulogy of the Civil war hero.

Reciting that his grandfather and other relatives were slave owners and recounting that he was raised with a group of relatives who could not see or realize the full value of the service rendered the nation by the great emancipator, Miller closed his remarks with his personal observations from reading history, declaring that in his opinion Lincoln possessed a greater quality of character and a greater personal individuality than any of the outstanding figures in national history—or world history, for that matter.

"In the southern viewpoint, the Civil war was not an idealistic war," the speaker said.

"In their opinion, it was a war forced by the New England states to defeat possibility of the south becoming a great manufacturing center and offering killing competition to the north by reason of the abundance of cheap labor available by the large population of negroes. They believed that the northerners saw in the freedom of the slaves an opportunity of taking away from the south their property (slaves) and creating an effective economic handicap that would remove the south as a possible strong competitor. They charged Lincoln with working out this plan under the pretext of fighting for the preservation of the union of the states."

Stating that Lincoln as an individual was a great man placed in a trying position, Miller said the war was settled right and that the greatest blessing that could have come to America was the freeing of the blacks.

"I see in Lincoln a man who had an idealism superior to any man," Miller said. "He was earnest in

Special Service for Young Folks

"Twilight-zone Amusements" will be the subject of a sermon to be preached this evening by Dr. E. P. Anderson of Nashville, Tenn., at Spurgeon Southern Methodist church, according to the pastor, the Rev. Moffett Rhodes. Dr. Anderson is conducting a series of evangelistic meetings in the church. The service tonight is for young people of high school and college age. The singing will be under the leadership of O. D. Langston of Berkeley, and a large choir and orchestra will assist. The Rev. Mr. Rhodes extends an invitation to the public to attend the meetings which are being held each evening except Saturday.

whatever he did—whether right or wrong. The hero had an insight into nature that we are just beginning to fully understand and comprehend. Lincoln was a plain man. He was approachable—and now the big men of this nation are more accessible than in years past, and they are getting back to that quality possessed by the man whose birthday we today celebrate."

George Gerwing was chairman of the program, others on the committee for the day being Wayne Goble and Carl Kaufman.

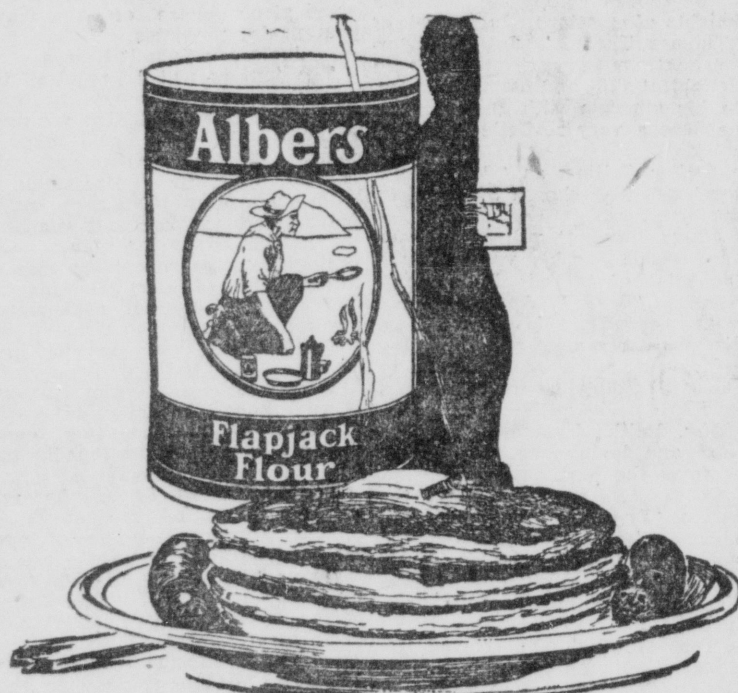

Jack Fisher, now with the Wayne Goble company, entertained with a chalk talk, closing his feature with a chalk drawing of Lincoln. Representatives of the Lions' club at Orange were present and invited the members to a dinner and dance the club there is to give on the evening of February 25.

A large number of members of the local club were absent yesterday. They were in San Diego, where they provided the program for the club there.

shire may hear the address by Fred B. Smith.

At noon today, about one hundred secretaries and delegates and their wives enjoyed luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. building, meeting as "The Employed Officers club" of the California association. R. B. Williams of Pomona presided at the meeting, and conducted the presentation of the program which dealt with matters of interest to the secretaries and workers. Following the luncheon, the secretaries adjourned to the opening convention session at the Spurgeon Methodist church.

Registration for the convention started early this morning at the convention headquarters established in the association building on Church street. The plan of the convention committee is to have not only delegates but all out of town visitors to register.

Saturday's Program

Saturday's program at the convention will open at nine o'clock, in the Ebell auditorium. Preceding this meeting, the state executive committee will be entertained at breakfast at the St. Ann's Inn by A. J. Crookshank. The morning session, at nine, will be opened with a devotional service led by Rev. W. H. McPeak. The consideration of business matters will occupy the morning hours until 11:30, at which time Fred B. Smith will be heard in another address. The public is welcome at the entire session, but all are especially invited to hear this noted speaker.

At ten o'clock Saturday morning, the ladies attending the convention will be entertained by a committee of local Ebells club ladies, and the committee in charge of the Women's Department of the Y. M. C. A. Miss Lasby is scheduled for a short talk, and other attractive features will be offered, in addition to the social hour, which will end in time for the ladies to hear Fred B. Smith.

At 12:30 p. m. Saturday, the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. work will be in the foreground. There is to be a luncheon at the Ebells club, to which local men and women will be welcome, provided they make their reservations this evening. Admiral Robison and Rear Admiral Bostwick will be guests of honor, and Admiral Robison will give an address. An orchestra of sailors from the battleship California will be on hand and a delegation of about twenty-five men from San Diego will also have a share in the program.

To Visit Chapman Home Saturday afternoon, if the weather is favorable, the entire convention will go to Fullerton, to visit the country home of C. C. Chapman, where a short, informal entertainment will be provided.

At five o'clock, group conferences will be held in the Y. M. C. A. building, with programs arranged for special consideration.

Everybody is invited to the final session of the convention, to be held Saturday evening at the First Baptist church. The session will begin at seven o'clock, with a presentation of the Y. M. C. A. work for boys. Demonstrations will be given by groups of boys, both local and from other cities, setting forth the activities carried on by the boys in their groups.

A most interesting feature of this program will be the presentation to Cecil Slaback, of this city, a life-savers medal in recognition of his conduct recently, when he saved the life of his little sister. Following the boys' work program, at eight o'clock, Rev. Willie Martin, of Hollywood, will give the closing address of the convention. It is expected that the session will close at nine o'clock, following his address.

FAT PEOPLE! LISTEN!

Here is How I Took Off 50 Pounds in Two Months—Simple, Easy, Harmless Way.

New French Discovery Creates Sensation in Paris and New York—No Weakening Diet, Absurd Creams or Worthless Garments.

At last you fat folks can have it all over your slender friends. For once you can give them the Hail Ha! No more of these well-known phrases: "How fat you are getting!" "she would be a good-looking woman if she was not so fat!" "we do not carry a size large enough to fit you," or "don't eat this and don't eat that, it will make you fatter." No more puffing, paining, rheumatism or tired feeling. A new French discovery is doing away with fat for good. Amongst hundreds who have already tried this marvelous new way, Madame Elaine's case, of 350 West 1st St., N. Y. C., convinces you that, no matter how fat you are, or how many things you have tried before now, you can be relieved. Her case was an obstinate one; she had tried everything to reduce, and still, she was getting fatter, until one day in Paris she found out the secret used by actresses and beautiful women to keep their figures slender and with which she herself lost 50 pounds in two months—we are giving below exact directions she followed—already hundreds of men and women have found them successful.

DIRECTIONS

EAT ALL YOU WANT: Do not weaken yourself with diets. TAKE IT EASY: Do not torture yourself with so-called reducing garments. BE COMFORTABLE: Do not rub yourself with worthless reducing creams. Simply go to any good drugstore, get a package of SAN-GRINA tablets (do not accept any substitute). SAN-GRINA is now introduced in America for the first time, so you cannot say that you have tried anything similar before, but be sure to get SAN-GRINA. Take two small tablets before each meal and watch the fat disappear—NOTHING BUT A SURE AND STEADY LOSS IN WEIGHT AND A STEADY GAIN IN STRENGTH, HEALTH, BEAUTY, ENERGY.

NOTE: These tablets are the formula of a French physician. They cannot possibly hurt your stomach or your health. They are GUARANTEED ABSOLUTELY HARMLESS, and while the fat disappears they act as a general tonic. On sale at White Cross, Kelley, Parsons, Mateers or Hadden-Jean Drug Stores.

ROTARIANS TO HELP YOUTHS WHO MIS-STEP

Further exemplifying their interest in young persons who have made a mis-step in life, the Rotary club of the county today had completed organization of a juvenile court committee. They will give special attention to juvenile court cases and assist the probation officer and the juvenile court judge in solving problems that come before them.

Organized with the approval of R. R. Miller, probation officer, and R. Y. Williams, juvenile court judge, the committee is composed of one member from each club in the county.

The committee met with the Rotary club at Orange yesterday. Following the meeting William McKay, circulation manager of The Register and a member of the Santa Ana club was elected as chairman. Other members are Ed Smith, of the Smith Lumber company, Anaheim; E. J. Marks, attorney of Fullerton; Mac Jones, president of the club and principal of the high school at Huntington Beach, and Leon Whitsell, supervisor of Orange.

The committee will ask each of the service clubs in the county to appoint a special committee of one to assist the committee in the handling of cases that may develop in the community in which the clubs are located.

"The committee will attempt to reclaim juveniles who have completed a sentence and to direct the steps of those who are placed on probation," McKay said, in outlining the work of the committee. "We

MADE 400 MILE TRIP TO COMPLETE PICTURE.

Because the weather bureau announced only twenty-four hours of clear weather preceding a rain storm, George Fitzmaurice, who directed "A Thief in Paradise," at the Yost theater, drove 400 miles at night in a blinding fog, over strange California roads, in order to reach Del Monte, Cal., before the rain halted his work.

Del Monte, playground of Pacific Coast society, was chosen as the locale of the dramatic honeymoon of two of the principals which is interrupted by a "thief" character in the story. All arrangements were made to photograph the famous home of Senator Clark, one of California's most beautiful residences, located near Del Monte.

Doris Kenyon, Ronald Colman and Aileen Pringle, the trio of feature players, and the members of Fitzmaurice's production staff made the trip by train. But a traffic jam near the depot caused Fitzmaurice to miss the train. A hurried call to the weather bureau brought the threatening information that rain was expected within forty-eight hours in the vicinity of Del Monte.

Fitzmaurice decided to drive the entire distance in order to avoid delay which might halt the picture for several days.

TELLS DYSPYPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas on Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismarck Magnesia, at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bismarck Magnesia. It is widely used for this purpose. It has no action on the stomach and is not a detergent. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of pepsin pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid and is not a laxative. In the dissolved form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

QUICK RELIEF FOR COUGHS AND COLDS AFTER THE FIRST DOSE

Go to your druggist today. Get a bottle of Rostine's Eucalin. It will clear the bronchial passages, loosen up congestion and bring that pleasant relief so early.

Eucalyptus can do when properly combined as in Eucalin. Give Eucalin to the children as it contains no narcotics, chloroform, alcohol or habit forming drugs. For Spasmodic Croup and Whooping Cough it has no equal.—Adv.

"THE GOLDEN BED" NEARS END OF ENGAGEMENT.

What happens to people when they step on acknowledged laws, demonstrated from the masculine side by Rod La Rocque in "The Ten Commandments," now has its feminine explanation in Cecil B. De Mille's newest picture, "The Golden Bed," which closes at the West End theater tomorrow.

As Flora Lee Peake of "The Golden Bed," Lillian Rich, the newest De Mille "find," surges tempestuously through love affairs with four men, a brilliant, flirtatious blonde meteor, saturated with family pride—and totally heedless of those fundamentals which keep less comet-like individuals from eventual disaster.

Flora Lee Peake and Rod La Rocque as Admah Holtz, "poor white trash," risen to wealth, and Vera Reynolds, younger daughter of the aristocratic house of Peaks, have the principal roles in this colorful De Mille social satire. Others featured in the all-star cast are Warner Baxter, Theodore Kosloff and Julia Faye. Playing in support are Henry Watthall, Robert Edson, Robert Cain, Jacqueline Wells, Mary Jane Irving, Don Marion and Charles Clary.

Garden Grove

GARDEN GROVE, Feb. 13.—One of the most profitable and instructive meetings of the year was that of Monday evening when members of the high school Parent-Teachers association met at that school.

Arriving at 7:30 the parents registered at the office where they received the day's schedule belonging to their children. These programs were then followed out, classes each being held for ten minutes. The teachers had provided displays which made the classes extremely interesting. Pupils were also present in the exhibition, including those in Mrs. Pringle's typing class, who demonstrated the new method of typing to music. Mr. Sprinkle had an exceedingly interesting display for the science courses. Not only were the classes helpful in giving the parents a better knowledge of the courses, but much amusement and excitement was derived in following out the routine. Between classes there was a wild scramble in the hunt for the jollification of the evening, several parents received demerits for tardiness and chewing gum.

At the close of "school" all met in the assembly room to celebrate the 28th anniversary of the P. T. A.

Mrs. P. N. Larson read the county president's message after which 28 mothers and fathers gathered around the immense birthday cake and each read an article, this feature of the program having been planned by the district president, Mrs. J. Edmund Snow.

Mr. Lee, Spanish-American war veteran and county patriotic instructor of the Boy Scouts, spoke on "How to Use the Flag." He also presented the school with an instruction card showing how to use and hang a flag.

Miss Frances Barbour reported that the furnishings for the teachers' rest-room had been completed, but any pillows or blankets for the day-bed would be gladly received.

Mrs. J. Edmund Snow, district president, as well as several other out-of-town guests, was present and cut the cake, which was served with coffee. Mrs. H. A. Lake having charge of the refreshments.

More than 100 guests were present to enjoy the affair. At the March meeting, students of the debating class will be present and give a debate.

"I could not work at all and had to take to my bed with a high fever due to intestinal indigestion, gases in my stomach and pain in my right side. I had spent my last cent for doctors and medicine, which gave me no relief. I was in despair. A lodge brother gave me a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and the first dose relieved me. Thanks to this medicine I am now in the best of health." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—Adv.

IS THE GOLDEN AGE THE GLAND AGE?

In a recent press dispatch, a London physician stated that the Golden Age of man bids fair to be the glandular age, when salvation will be taken in tablet form. He said further that the average man believes that his thoughts, action and feelings are controlled by his mind. But it is possible to show that mind is itself under the despotic sway of the ductless glands, which generate in the system the chemical fluids on which depend health, happiness and morality.

Glandogen, the new scientific gland tonic, prepared in tablet form provides a simple method of taking glandular treatment. C. S. Kelley and Park Drug Stores will supply you. Mail orders accepted.—Adv.

DEAD BANKER'S PAPERS CHARGE COERCION PLOT

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—A strange tale of kidnapping and coercion was disclosed in federal court here in affidavits written and signed by O. F. Brant, former general manager of the Title Insurance company, several years before he died in 1922.

The documents were introduced by attorneys for Brant's estate, and charge E. E. Easton, a former business associate, with having lured the banker from his offices and held him prisoner for three days, while under threat of death his signature was obtained to important papers.

Easton, through the alleged action, came into possession of properties valued at more than $1,000,000, it was charged, which Brant's heirs are seeking to recover.

The dead capitalist's affidavits were said to have been discovered by his son in a drawer of his desk in a downtown office.

CRUELTY AND CORRUPTION AT 'PEN' CHARGED

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 13.—Tales of inhuman cruelty and death meted out to prisoners in the state penitentiary were in the files of the legislative prison investigating committee burrowing into the details of alleged irregularities at Huntsville today.

Death and mistreatment of prisoners inmates at the hands of some guards and under-keepers, sometimes convict overseers, and sweepings in charges of gross mismanagement and corruption in the prison system, were detailed before the committee by former convicts and partially verified by some prison officials. Starvation, mayhem, manhandling and forced labor by sick prisoners were practiced with impunity, witnesses testified.

Dies From Starvation, Charge Joe Furey, notorious swindler, who fleeced J. Frank Norfleet, Hale Center, Texas, rancher, out of his life savings and led the avenging Norfleet a merry chase about the North America continent before he was brought to the bar of justice, died from starvation and manhandling by a convict guard at Huntsville penitentiary, Dr. E. H. Boaz, former convict, testified.

Boaz declared he was an eye-witness to the manhandling of Furey, who, he testified, had been systematically starved until he was insane.

Furey was a mindless hulk, emaciated until he could not stand up on his feet, although he had been the picture of health when he entered the penitentiary two years before his death, Boaz declared.

Use Bludgeon on Convict Fainting, Furey was dipped in icy water repeatedly by C. C. Fowler, convict care taker in the insane ward, dragged from the vat and beaten into insensibility with a bludgeon and stamped in the face, Boaz testified under oath. Boaz told the committee he never mentioned the incident while he was in the penitentiary as the convicts "knew better than to talk."

Furey died a few hours after the torture, Boaz declared.

"The prison records showed the noted confidence man died from 'cancer of the bladder,'" T. K. Irwin, leading legislative investigator, said.

Report Tremors Are Due to Gun Practice at Sea

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Feb. 13.—Reported earth tremors from many points in the bay district last night, were explained today by officials of the naval fleet as merely the reverberations of long-distance target practice.

A flood of inquiries reached here shortly after the dreadnaught Nevada unleashed its great guns in long-distance practice about 10 p. m.

Officials explained that unusual atmospheric conditions prevailed when the 14-inch rifles of the dreadnaught went into action causing the concussion to be felt over a wide radius.

CLOSE ENTRIES FOR BIG AUTO RACE FEB. 22

De Palma, Cooper, Milton, Hill and Bordino Among Daredevils Enrolled

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—When the entries for the 250 mile championship auto race at Culver City, Feb. 22, closed at midnight, Feb. 11, there were twenty-one of the world's greatest drivers entered. There is now one entry over the maximum number allowed to start in a maximum speedway event; and time trials must be held to determine the slowest car, which will be eliminated.

It is planned to stage the elimination trials next Thursday, Feb. 19, thus giving the twenty-one speed kings ample time to tune their cars to the highest point.

This is the first time in the history of automobile racing in the West that elimination trials have been necessary for a championship race. It means that the field is the largest as well as the fastest ever mustered for a contest on any board sponsored anywhere in the entire world.

There is much speculation among the drivers as to who will be the slow man when the eliminations are held. Some of the veterans believe that the entrant who will have to sit on the side lines will come from among the youngsters who are just breaking into the sport, namely Frank Lockhart or Pete Kreis. Other drivers believe that some of the old timers will find it difficult to set a pace equal to that established by the younger speed kings and it will not surprise them to see some man who has been an outstanding star in the past drop by the wayside when the speed trials are held.

The official entry list is:

Unless Manager Harris of the Washington club digs up a veteran catcher to help out Muddy Ruel, he will be forced to handle a great assortment of pitching the coming season.

Walter Johnson is still a speedball artist, despite the fact he has lost some of the "zip" on his fast one.

Fred Marberry, best relief pitcher in the American league, throws what players are wont to call a "hard one."

Marberry has great speed and delivers the ball in such a way that it is heavy to catch, very hard on a catcher's hands.

Tom Zachary's best asset is a knuckle ball, which breaks much after the manner of a spitter.

George Mogridge mixes his stuff, being the possessor of a great change of pace and a "snaky" curve.

Veau Gregg and Dutch Reuther, veteran southpaws, recently added to the Nat's staff, use fast-breaking curves.

Stanley Coveleske, secured from Cleveland, throws a deceptive spitball, hard to handle.

Some assortment of pitching for one catcher to take care of. Ruel lost 20 pounds last season doing most of the catching. The prospects for him being even lighter next fall are excellent.

Wayne Munn, newly crowned heavyweight champion, is living up to the precepts of all titleholders in sport.

Instead of wrestling, Munn intends to elevate the stage by his presence. Perhaps it would be more correct to say he will make it sag.

It's a cinch that Munn, with his six feet six inches in height and 250 pounds of avoirdupois, won't do any toe dancing.

In his wrestling partner afternoon and evening, living up to the proceedings by finishing with a demonstration of how he won the championship by tossing Lewis out of the ring.

In the fight and wrestling game the idea is to quit doing the things you can do the moment you become champion.

SAN FRANCISCO—The California Athletic commission, generally called the boxing commission, is a supreme tribunal and has power to overrule all municipal and county boards which may regulate local boxing, according to an opinion by Attorney General U. S. Webb.

Ritola Shatters Nurmi's Record For 2 Mile Run

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 13.—Four world's records were smashed here last night by Paavo Nurmi and Willie Ritola, Finland's flying twins.

Nurmi bettered his own marks for 2000 yards, 2000 meters and one and one-fourth miles.

Ritola, conceding handicap up to 125 yards to four opponents, ran one of the greatest races of his career, finishing the last lap with a terrific sprint that blotted out Nurmi's old mark of 9m. 8s. Ritola's time was 9 min. 3.45 sec.

The world's outdoor record of 9 min. 9.35 sec., made by Alfred Shrubbs of England in 1904, now has been bettered indoors by three men, Joie Ray, Nurmi and Ritola.

Walker, M'Gigue Would Mend Woes

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Mike McGigue and Mickey Walker, two prominent ring champions, who are in bad with the New York boys' commission, will be restored to good standing before the outdoor season opens, it was learned today.

Friends of the two boxers, who are not allowed to accept engagements in New York, have approached the commission with peace offers and they have been told that they will be pardoned if they make a few minor concessions that will relieve the commission from the appearance of being taken down.

Walker is now on the Pacific coast and McGigue is laid up for several months with bad hands as a result of a recent operation.

Paddock Picks Ten Leading Sprinters

PASADENA, Calif., Feb. 13.—Loren Murchison is the world's premier sprinter, according to Charlie Paddock, the California flash.

In response to a wire from Grantland Rice, eastern sports writer, Paddock today selected ten leading sprint stars of the world, omitting mention of himself.

Following Murchison, the runners in the order of their importance, were listed by Paddock as follows:
H. Abrahams, England; H. Houben, Germany; Jackson Scholz, U. S. A.; J. Leconey, U. S. A.; C. Bouman, U. S. A.; F. Hussey, U. S. A.; G. Hill, U. S. A.; P. Porritt, New Zealand; K. Lloyd, U. S. A.

THREE AMERICAN ATHLETES SET NEW RECORDS

BOB LEGENDRE BROAD JUMP
H.M. OSBORNE HIGH JUMP
CHARLES R. BROOKINS 220 YD. LOW HURDLES

Every year usually finds at least one outstanding performance by an American athlete in track and field competition; an effort de luxe wherein a new world's record is created.

Taking into consideration only the 15 standard events such as go to make up a collegiate meet, one finds that during the past two seasons there have been three what might be termed extraordinary performances on track and field.

One of these, of course, was the sensational mark hung up by Charles R. Brookins while competing for the University of Iowa in 1923. Brookins negotiated the 220-yard low hurdles in the remarkable time of 23.15 seconds, breaking the former figure by two-fifths of a second.

It was back in 1928 that Alvin Kraenzlein of the University of Pennsylvania hung up the former mark.

Beats Broad Jump Record
At the Olympic games last summer, Robert Legendre, one-time luminary at Georgetown University, leaped 25 feet 6 inches in the running broad jump. And in so doing, shattered the old record set by Ned Gordin of Harvard, in 1921, by a full three inches.

The third record-breaking effort was made by Harold Osborne, one of the greatest athletes ever turned out at Illinois. Osborne, last May, cleared the bar in the high jump at 6 feet 8.14 inches, almost an inch higher than the best previous performance made 10 years before.

There have been the three outstanding feats of the past couple seasons—Brookins, in the low hurdles; Osborne, high jump, and Legendre, broad jump. And they were made by a trio of remarkable athletes.

Each is Versatile Athlete
For Brookins, besides being a timber-topper par excellence, can also run the 220 and 440-yard dashes in close to record time. Osborne and Legendre rate as crack all-round performers. Osborne won the decathlon at the Paris games last year, setting a new world's mark, and Legendre placed third in the pentathlon against a great field of Europeans.

NEW YORK—Negotiations have been closed for a world's featherweight championship bout in Madison Square Garden on March 26 between Kid Kaplan, American champion, and Edouard Mascart, European champion.

CLEVELAND—Sully Montgomery, former Centre college football star, won a 12 round decision from Johnny Risko, Cleveland heavyweight.

Marion Hollins Leads Field of Women With 83

DEL MONTE, Cal., Feb. 13.—Miss Marion Hollins, former national golf champion, and holder of the Pebble Beach championship, drove off with Mrs. W. C. Van Antwerp of San Francisco today as the first pair in the first round of the annual tournament.

Miss Hollins led the field in the qualifying round yesterday with an 83, and is regarded as in a strong position now to retain her title. Mrs. Van Antwerp qualified with 100.

Fights and Fightets

NEW YORK—Jimmy Slattery, Buffalo middleweight, is the favorite in the betting to win from Jack Delaney, Bridgeport, when they meet in a six round bout tonight in Madison Square Garden.

NEW YORK—After Jack Renault, Canadian champion, had refused to accept George Godfrey, negro heavyweight, as a substitute for Quintin Romero, the contest scheduled for Monday night in Madison Square Garden, was called off.

EAST CHICAGO, Ind.—Jack Malone, St. Paul, will mix with Ray Pelkey of the Pacific Coast in a 10 round, no-decision affair tonight. The weight limit will be 135 pounds.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Huskies who have never seen a shell were asked to try out for the Harvard rowing crews by Coach El Stevens. "We want all the students to know that rowing at Harvard is not for the rich or for those who have a pull. You don't have to have experience," he said, addressing the student body.

S. A. BOWLERS DEFEATED 3-1 BY L. A. FIVE

Hitting the woodpile for a 1048 total in their third and decisive game, the J. Benjamin Fahy Fords of Los Angeles administered a 3 to 1 thrashing to the Bowles Motor company, local representatives in the Southern California league, at the A. and B. alleys here last night.

The visitors had an easy time snuffing the first session but Santa Ana came back and captured the second by more than 100 pins. The Fords made these back with plenty to spare by their 1048 game.

Ana Gregg, crack maple-splitter of the visitors, couldn't get going until the last game when he recorded 247 sticks. Three 214 games helped swell his total.

Penny Jones led the Santa Ana quintette with a 609 series which was second high for the evening. Braun leading with 619 pieces of wood.

"Larry" Larrison was unable to take his place in the Bowles lineup. Frank Nickey shot for him. The scores:

Anaheim and the Jahnke Coffee shop of Los Angeles split even, 2 and 2, in a Southern California league series at the Broadway alleys, Los Angeles, last night. Santa Ana and Anaheim clash next week on the Mother Colony drives.

Anaheim won the second game and total pins from Jahnke's, hammering the wood for a 2309 series against 2391 for the Los Angeles quintette.

Pick of Harbor League In Effort to Beat Champs; Record Crowd Expected

The Orange County Harbor league All-Stars and the Irvine Bearpickers, undefeated in their 10 last starts, will collide in the first of a three-game series at Irvine park Sunday. The game will begin at 2:30 o'clock. The All-Stars will represent Garden Grove, runner-up to the Bearpickers for title honors in the Harbor circuit. Virtually every team in the league will have some players on the squad.

The Stars have three pitchers—Boissacano, Le Bard and Blacholder—and it is not known whom Wentz will give the nod.

Irvine will undoubtedly depend on Arch Hawkins to pitch the Bearpickers through to victory. Hawkins has been going exceptionally strong lately but if he finds trouble with the Stars the reliable Irvine veteran, "Dutch" Hinrichs, will be there for relief.

"We want all the students to know that rowing at Harvard is not for the rich or for those who have a pull. You don't have to have experience," he said, addressing the student body.

LONG BEACH—A bond issue for approximately $1,500,000, for the retirement of all outstanding obligations against the city, and for the removal of the Union Pacific railroad tracks from the downtown section of Long Beach, will be one of the projects to confront the voters here soon. Such a bond issue will be advocated by the city council as soon as voters have passed on the beach bond issue and the forthcoming charter amendments.

RIVERSIDE—A world war dream materialized here when common council unanimously approved the proposal of Riverside post, American Legion, to erect a pretentious clubhouse on the shores of Lake Evans. Work will start at once on a site on the southwest side of the lake, sufficient acreage to care for all the Legion's needs, having been donated by Mayor S. C. Evans. Tentative plans call not only for a clubhouse of unique design, but for installation of tennis courts, baseball diamond, tournament field, volleyball courts and in the main an outline that will encourage wholesome sports among the Legion members and the citizens at large.

SAN BERNARDINO—Avington lodge, famed Lake Arrowhead hotel, has been sold by A. L. Richmond to Mrs. A. J. Stockton, wealthy Santa Barbara society and business woman, and will be immediately improved at an expenditure of over $100,000. Consideration was $600,000. The new owner plans construction of several score cabins on the hotel grounds to be ready for occupancy by spring. The expenditure will exceed $100,000 as planned. No change will be made in the hotel proper, as it is at present in the best of condition and fully equipped.

POMONA—Expecting several hundred Elks from the many different lodges of the order in Southern California as well as a full attendance of the local valley membership, committees were announced which will have charge of dedication of the new home of Pomona lodge, No. 789, B. P. O. E., when that costly structure is formally dedicated the night of February 25. Plans for the reception and ceremony, which will be elaborate and extensive, and preparations for the entertainment of the expected large crowd have been made.

EMULATES MARY'S LAMB

This is Bingo, better known as Contact. Christened Bingo he started life as the pet of Mrs. Mary Paine, instructor in the extension division of the University of California. Like Mary's lamb he followed her to school one day. While his mistress taught mathematics he inspected the university. He met up with the engineers, took to the hills with them on a geological survey party and liked it so much that he came back for more. Bingo left home and became Contact, named so because they say he can run out a contact like some dogs run out deer. The geological students, looking for contacts or the joining of two geological formations, soon discovered the dog's "sense" for them. Now they never go out on a "contact hunt" without the dog.

of the United States forest service, is provided for in tentative plans now being shaped. The new forest arrangement is for the purpose of combatting the customary fire menace. The western half of the Angeles National forest is to be segregated from the eastern section, which will ultimately be known as the San Bernardino National forest, with headquarters at San Bernardino. This change is scheduled to take place before the opening of the fire season.

PASADENA—The influx of "nickel slot" machines which literally took Pasadena by storm in a month's time, was abruptly stopped when the city directors passed an emergency ordinance making the operation of such machine a violation of the law. According to police officers who have made investigations, the 400 machines located in the city have reaped a small fortune in Pasadena during their short operation here. It is believed that $200,000 has been taken in during the 30 days. The machines have escaped the gambling law since a stick of gum is given to the player each time he deposits a coin. The player also has a chance of winning metal slugs, which are redeemable for merchandise.

EXPERT TELLS MATERIAL MEN CREDIT POINTS

Discussing the pre-requisites for granting credit to contractors, H. C. Stone, of the Building Material Dealers' association, Los Angeles, in an address before the Orange County Lumber Men's club at Whittier a few days ago stressed 21 points which material men should consider when giving credit to contractors.

The points were given as follows:
Is he a practical contractor, that is, a building or a financier?
Does he operate on a strict contract or a cost plus basis? If the latter, is there a limit which he must keep under?

Is he able to obtain bond in surety company, or has he ever defaulted? If so, why?
Are his bookkeeping records proper? Does he know his costs? Does he shift funds from one job to another?

Does he make contracts for extras, or does he allow these to be settled by "word of mouth?"

In his financial statement, does he show anticipated profits on jobs without offsetting liability to complete said job?

Are liens usually filed against his work? If so, why?
Does he pay material bills promptly?

Is he a member of the Associated General Contractors, whose standard calls for high ethics and good work?

If a partnership, are the partners harmonious and happy?

Does he protect himself by compensation insurance and other insurance during the life of the contract?

Is he in the habit of giving security to the building material dealers to the detriment of others if things go wrong?

Are sub-contractors adequately financed, or if dealing with a sub-contractor is general contractor adequately financed?

Nature of work done? Is it particularly hazardous?

Will prices of material and labor remain steady during the life of the job or might fluctuations upset his calculations?

Is he a good collector?

Is the financing of the job not only arranged for but also available when the time comes?

Does he understand the Merchant's Lien law?

Does he do good work?

Is he capable of handling several jobs at the same time?

Has he enough money to handle the jobs on hand?

"IRON JACK" IS ENGINEER NOW; LEAVES OKLA.

HOUSTON, Tex., Feb. 13.—"Iron Jack" Walton, former governor of Oklahoma, is now J. C. Walton, "consulting engineer," and will make his future home in Houston. The former chief executive of Oklahoma, leader of the "Antis" of bitter clan "war" days, made the announcement of his future residence from his hotel here today. "I am a consulting engineer by profession," Walton said. "I may practice that profession. It will take about two weeks to decide."

Meanwhile, with Mrs. Walton and their two daughters, he is resting after an automobile ride from the Rio Grande valley.

Questioned regarding the similarity of his career with that of former Governor James E. Ferguson of Texas, Walton said:

"If Jim Ferguson's been over the same road I have, he's been over a rocky one."

Both Walton and Ferguson drew their political strength from the farm-labor groups and both were impeached. Both have used successfully a hard hitting type of campaign and flowery oratory. Both fought the Klan bitterly.

In the short year since he was impeached, three men, George Wilson, E. T. Bingham and Pat Nagel, who were very close to him and then turned against him, have died.

"You know I sometimes think retribution is working up there in Oklahoma," Walton said gravely. "There is one thing I can't forgive and that is ingratitude."

Capital Letter

By HARRY E. HUNT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The capital already is beginning to spruce up for its big quadrennial show—the presidential inauguration, March 4.

Sprucing up for Coolidge, however, is a rather difficult job.

The president, preferring simplicity and unostentatious himself, would like the affair over with without a lot of flub-dub and ceremony.

But custom and precedent cannot be wholly overridden even by so "common sense" a president as Coolidge.

Custom decrees that the victorious party shall throw one grand and glorious celebration on the occasion of its standard bearer's inaugural.

So, although Coolidge has succeeded in toning down considerably the lavish festivities, he has not been able to eliminate them wholly.

He forbade an official inaugural ball, requested that visiting governors bring only small staffs with them, and ordered that no military units be brought to Washington to participate in the parade except such as were quartered near enough to make the march on foot.

He wouldn't even authorize the expenditure of carfare necessary to bring the West Point and Annapolis cadets to Washington.

Spanish among a total of 342 language students.

Commercial work lists 487 students with typing interesting 220 of them. Geometry and algebra divide honors almost equally among the 458 students of mathematics.

In the sciences, biology is given the decided preference. There are 221 students in the biology classes out of a total of 401 registered in some science study.

Music interests an even 200 students. Art work appeals to 102. The mechanic art courses enroll 215 students with large numbers in woodshop and mechanical drawing classes. To the girls in domestic arts, sewing is more attractive than cooking. There are 164 girls taking up some phase of domestic arts.

VAN DYKE IS HOPEFUL FOR WORLD FUTURE

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 13.—"The world isn't going to the dogs. The dogs are after the world but they won't get it."

Thus epitomizes the Rev. Henry Van Dyke, smiling sympathetically upon this hectic generation out of his 73 years of philosophical adventuring.

Clergyman, professor, writer, philosopher, woodsman, statesman and probably one of the four leading trout fishermen of the nation—Dr. Henry Van Dyke ranks among the most interesting personalities in the country.

When interviewed he was preparing for a hurried departure to Australia, there to seek fabled trout streams of New Zealand and, by way of sounder mission, to look into the workings of the very liberal government-controlled institutions of that country.

"What do people most need to bring greater contentment to this workaday world?" he was asked. A large question, but he smiled a ready answer:

"We must learn the three L's for life as we learned the three R's for school. Now mark you, the three L's are: Looking, Listening and Learning. If we look and listen we will learn and we will be happy. The trouble is that most people neither look nor listen. They think they look, but they do not see. They see only that which is to their selfish purpose. They do not see the butterfly by the road. And when they listen it is—said to say—to their own voices. They do not hear the purring of the brook, nor the voice of wisdom. And so, they do not seem to learn."

"The city has all but forgotten nature."

"But this rushing, mad scramble cannot keep up in our cities," he interjected the interviewer.

"We can be only sympathetic with the rushing throngs," he went on. "We cannot lecture nor console. We can but pity. Already scientists are seeking to figure when, how and where the nerve tension will snap; how long it can last—all those problems. I am not predicting that all city nerves shall snap—but if it does come to a question of survival we shall not need to worry. Out in the western country in the great outdoors are thousands of men living according to nature's simple laws. They will not crack under any strain."

Dr. Van Dyke has kept himself close to the outdoors and its people and thus finds himself hale, hearty and ready for knockabout life in the outdoors, despite his age.

His adventures in fishing would fill many volumes; his adventures in life have filled many volumes of philosophical writing. In addition to which he has been American minister to the Netherlands, held a lecturer's chair at Princeton and become a fellow of the Royal Society of Literature, Letters and Arts.

Drawing from his vast experiences he declares that the modern definition of pleasure must be changed.

"We have made pleasure mean satisfaction of physical senses and appetites," he points out.

Also he believes in the efficacy of prayer, declaring that "religion cannot possibly survive without it."

TO FEED SOULS OF CHICAGO CHILDREN

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—Aiming to relieve an environment of ugly home surroundings, drab streets, and monotonous class rooms—the life of thousands of slum children here—the Chicago Public School Art society has placed 2400 big, framed color reproductions of old and modern masters in 180 city school buildings.

Funds for purchasing 10,000 more pictures will be raised by a series of exhibitions here of world famous paintings selected from 60 private collections throughout the nation which have been placed at the disposal of the society.

"A vivid painting entering the life of a child during the critical formative years may be the means of changing his whole life," Mrs. Theodore Ticken, sponsor of the movement, says.

"Give the slum child free milk, supervise his diet, send him to a clinic, but don't starve his soul while caring for his body."

Rich S. F. Girl
Weds Trainer of Banker's Stable

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—Reports that Miss Wanda K. Linforth, daughter of a wealthy San Francisco attorney, was engaged to marry William Threlkeld, trainer and stable manager for Irving H. Hellman, Los Angeles banker, were not exaggerated after all.

They were married at the Palace hotel yesterday and the girl's parents, who had opposed the match, because of Threlkeld's age and the girl's youth, were present. The bride is 18, and the groom, 40.

Miss Linforth last week branded reports of the engagement as "stable talk."

Favor Commission for Drug Sellers

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The "pay envelope" is becoming rarer among salesmen in the drug trade, according to the National Wholesale Druggists' Association, which reports a strong trend away from fixed salaries. More and more, it was stated, compensation is taking the form of commission or apportionment of net profits on goods sold.

Summarizing on results of a survey of leading wholesale houses, the association, in a special report, concludes that among those firms who pay on a commission basis, "the trend is very definitely toward a scale of commissions increasing in direct ratio with the profitability of merchandise sold."

SO. CALIFORNIA SAVANT SHARES $1000 AWARD

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Science has pushed the boundaries of the celestial universe four times farther into space than hitherto was suspected, definitely measuring the distance from the earth to two remote spiral nebulae as 930,000 light years or five and a half quadrillion miles and pushing still further on.

Dr. Edwin Hubble of the Mount Wilson, Cal., observatory, performed this remarkable measurement and in recognition of it the American Association for the Advancement of Science has divided its annual $1,000 award between him and Dr. L. R. Cleveland, fellow scientist at Johns Hopkins University of Baltimore, who was given a share for the research in physiology of the protozoa inhabiting the digestive tracts of termites and other insects and animals.

Hubble made his measurement by a comparison of the real and apparent brightness of certain variable stars in the nebulae.

By photographs he resolved the outer parts of the nebulae in and around and in triangular "dense swarms of actual stars," long suspected but never before equivocally proved.

Among these swarms he found many to be variable with characteristics of other known variable stars. Using Stetson's evidence that the real brightness of stars of this sort compared with the sun depends only upon their period of variation, Hubble determined that the real brightness of the nebulae variables ranged 4000 to 8000 times that of the sun.

Observations showed him that the same stars appear as exceedingly faint objects of the eighteenth and nineteenth magnitude. With this apparent brightness and his determination of the real brightness for comparison, Hubble fixed the distances of the nebulae at 930,000 light years. By the same method he placed the distance of the faint star cloud N. G. C. 6822 as 750,000 light years.

The andromeda nebulae actual diameter, Hubble estimated must exceed 30,000 light years, which is larger than the Milky Way was supposed to be until recently. The total light of the nebulae is approximately one billion times the light of the sun. As the two Hubble measured are the largest and brightest spirals in the sky, easily visible to the naked eye, Hubble estimated that the fainter spirals are much more remote. He is working on variables in three or these fainter nebulae.

Dr. Cleveland's research dealt with resistance of protozoa to oxygenation. He found that they could be killed in certain insects and animals without harming the host, but the same protozoa could not be killed in man because man was unable to stand oxygenation, long enough.

FIND DOG IN WELL
PRINCETON, Ind., Feb. 13.—Spark Plug, Joe Kurtz's terrier, was missing for three weeks. Joe was working around his barn when he heard a whine coming from an abandoned well under the barn. He was lowered into the well and brought up the dog almost dead from starvation. The dog was fed every two hours for the next 24 hours and will live.

DIAMOND DEBTOR
NEWCASTLE, Eng., Feb. 13.—A debtor appeared in court here and pleaded that he didn't have a cent in the world to pay his debts. The judge kept watching his tie, and the "poor debtor" suddenly realized that he was wearing a valuable diamond stickpin. He was compelled to hand it over for the benefit of his debtors.

GET DATA AS CHILD'S LIFE SLOWLY EBBS

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 13.—

Ten months to live! The clock is ticking away the life of 14-month-old Corinne Abelson, as cunning a baby as ever came into the world.

Nationally famed scientists at Johns Hopkins hospital here have pronounced the sentence.

A rare malady came upon Corinne eight months ago. Science calls it "Sack's disease." Behind this name lies one of the mysteries that medicine has yet to solve.

The famous doctors are at helplessness as the distraught parents who come to the bedside and—wait. No cure is known. Little is known of the disease. But what is known tells science that at the end of the vigil stands death.

Waiting! Science and love!

Love is daily resigning itself to the inevitable. Science is interested; keenly interested.

A daily chart is kept. The chart records the hours; the minutes. The chart tells science that at a certain hour recently the baby's eyesight began to fail. A certain symptom this. It fits accurately into what science knows of the rare disease.

Love needed no chart. The eyesight was failing! No longer could baby eyes see the features of a loving parent.

Ten months to live! But Baby Corinne already is writing her epitaph—her will, if you please!

Her contribution to life in the brief months of lifetime may be greater than thousands who lived to a ripe old age. Small compensation to those who wait.

Yet what the world-famed physicians learn in watching the child may mean life to other stricken babes.

She may be the solution to another medical mystery.

If death cannot be thwarted her little body will go to the scientists for post-mortem study. That has been arranged. The father has consented.

It will be her contribution to a world that she has seen but dimly.

Meanwhile they wait. Science and love: Both stationed hour upon hour at the bedside while the clock ticks away life.

And science says: "Ten months to live!"

And love says, ever hopefully: "Perhaps a cure will be found."

FRENCH EXPORTS TO AMERICA INCREASE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Exports from France to the United States increased in 1924, according to cable advices to the department of commerce, from the American consulate in France.

The total declared exports for last year to the United States and possessions, the reports showed, was valued at $176,312,128, as against $156,580,522 in 1923, or a gain of $19,732,606. These figures include gold shipments of $22,531,068 in 1924, and of $12,141,615 in 1923. The increase of $10,389,453 in gold shipments leaves a net increase of merchandise exported of $9,443,152.

Of the 1924 exports, $175,134,105 were shipped to the United States proper, $1,059,413 to the Philippine Islands, $113,040 to Porto Rico, $3430 to Hawaii, and $3140 to the Virgin Islands.

OHIO GROCERY IS WRECKED BY BOMB

NILES, Ohio, Feb. 13.—A grocery was wrecked and a dwelling next door damaged by a mysterious bomb explosion here yesterday. Police believe that the blast may be a recurrence of the clan and anti clan hate war which caused serious rioting here in November. This is the fourth bomb outrage here in the last 18 months.

Two Independent Oil Refineries Merge Resources

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—The American Gasoline corporation, with a capitalization of $10,000,000, launched here Thursday uniting two of Southern California's largest independent refineries, the Western Gasoline and Refining company, and the American Gasoline and Refining company.

The new company will be operated as a closed corporation, none of the capital stock being offered for sale to the public. The refineries involved in the merger have been producing 35,000 gallons of gasoline daily.

George C. Wents, president of the new corporation, said the consolidation would make possible the enlargement of refining plants at Santa Fe Springs and Compton. Nearly $1,000,000 is to be spent the coming year for development, it was said.

A Dandy Place For Chickens Six-room house and 2 lots, plenty of fruit, right in town. Will be sold at auction Wednesday, Feb. 12, 2:30 p. m. One block of Lincoln school, one block north of hospital. See Crasher Realty Co. for particulars.

SCHOOL 'CITY' ORGANIZED TO TEACH CIVICS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Feb. 13.—With a meeting scheduled for next Tuesday, when the mayor of the "Junior City" at the grammar school will be elected by the board of trustees at the school, the members of a former board of trustees will form a chamber of commerce in the school. It was announced today by Miss Elsie Chambers, civics teacher at the elementary school. An election was held recently. The children inaugurated the plan of city government at the school early in the fall. Practical elections were held and each room elected a representative to the board of trustees. These trustees elected their own mayor and settled problems of the children which were brought before them. A city clerk and a treasurer were also elected. The classes were first incorporated into a city as any town might incorporate.

Sees Benefit of Plan
"I believe the practical work will be much more beneficial to the children than any other way we could teach them," Miss Chambers declared. Elections were held at the half term, at which time the old trustees, who could not be re-elected, gave their reports. Practically every one of the trustees reported the stopping of fighting, the picking up of waste paper, on the grounds, and maintenance of discipline and order among the pupils.

The fact that the students were interested in the work led the teachers to decide to allow them to try the chamber of commerce work at the school. S. R. Bowen, president of the local chamber of commerce, will explain the workings of the civic body to the students. This will be done before the chamber at the school is formed.

Parents and friends of the pupils were much interested in the election at the school. Many visitors watched the voting. The entire matter was in the hands of the first board of trustees. Regular voting booths were used, and a rigid watch was kept on all votes for improper markings during the counting of the votes by the children.

Names of Trustees

The newly-elected trustees are: Grade four, division one, Hardy Wright; division two, Cleo Smith; division three, Raymond Berney; division four, Grover McLain. Grade five, division one, Dorothea Prescott; division two, Clyde Henry; division three, Robert Harvey; division four, Conley Powell. Grade six, division one, Harry Robinson; division two, Charlotte Eader; division three, Alan Gilchrist. Grade seven, division one, Jack Naylor; division two, Velma Scott; division three, Myrtle Ralston. Grade eight, division one, Margaret Clifton; division two, Lulu Wright; division three, Bertha Clyde. Margaret Shank was elected city clerk and Harold Berry is the new treasurer.

YORBA LINDA, Feb. 13.—A road a mile long including several big fills and much grading along the side of the canyon, is being built by the Union Oil company to reach the location for the well to be drilled in soon north of the Yorba Linda tract.

The road leaves Citrus avenue, near the A. C. Pickering place, at the east edge of the Carlton townsite, and runs north to the Olanda Wilson ranch, where it turns north and follows a canyon.

The spot selected for the first well is north of the Yorba Linda tract line and, though the road is not yet completed, trucks are hauling materials for the rig. Gas and supply tank has been erected near the north main of the Yorba Linda Water company, from which point it will be pumped to the well.

Other expenses necessary to improve the department will be taken from the proceeds of the ball. It is expected that contributions will also be made by the department to the firemen's orphans' home. A fund was raised for the orphans' home last year by the local volunteer fire department.

FULLERTON TO MAKE U. OF S. C. SITE PROPOSAL

FULLERTON, Feb. 13.—Possibility of other educational institutions besides the University of California, southern branch, being interested in locating at Fullerton, which has become to widely advertised through the recent campaign conducted by the chamber of commerce in an effort to bring the university branch here, was made known today.

C. A. Raymer, secretary of the chamber of commerce, is conducting negotiations with the University of Southern California with this end in mind.

It is said that this institution, which has several thousand students in its various departments, is in the same situation as the southern branch of the state university so far as lack of land is concerned and its location in the heart of Los Angeles makes it practically impossible to increase its real estate holdings except at a prohibitive price.

The various buildings and departments of the institution are already widely scattered, increasing difficulties of administration, it is said, so that some move toward a new and larger site, offering an opportunity for both centralization and expansion, is being seriously considered.

County Library Club Gathers At Yorba Linda

YORBA LINDA, Feb. 13.—Miss Blanche Bemish, Yorba Linda district librarian, was hostess Saturday to the members of the Orange County Library club, when librarians from all over the county and a few districts outside, met here for their regular meeting.

The session opened at the library at 10 a. m. and a program was enjoyed before the business session. Mrs. Clayton F. Rowell gave a most interesting talk on reminiscences, and the question box, conducted by Miss Margaret Livingston, Orange county librarian, proved interesting.

Election of officers for the coming year resulted in naming Miss Mabel Faulkner, Orange librarian, president; Mrs. Ethelene Kitchling of the Fullerton high school library, vice president, and Miss Lulu Ramsey of the Anaheim union high school library, secretary-treasurer.

At noon the ways and means committee of the Women's club served a three-course luncheon. The ladies were assisted by the Yorba Linda Camp Fire girls.

The next meeting of the club will be held at Newport Beach with the librarian, Mrs. Douglas, as hostess, early in May.

PLAN WELCOME IN ANAHEIM TO ADM. COONTZ

ANAHEIM, Feb. 13.—Arrangements for entertainment of Admiral Robert E. Coontz, of the American navy, when he visits Orange county next week, were under way here today by the chamber of commerce.

Admiral Coontz has planned to visit relatives in Orange county and the Anaheim chamber is arranging a welcome on the occasion of his visit. He will arrive in San Pedro on February 17, having left Puget Sound on February 9 with a squadron of battle cruisers. Admiral Coontz is a cousin of Mrs. J. E. Phillips, Mrs. E. Crooke and Mrs. Corrine Miglionico, all of Fullerton.

Sees His Sister, Aged 12 Years, For First Time

T. A. HABDA, Feb. 13.—When Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leutwiler of Highland, Ill., came west a short time ago on a surprise visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Leutwiler, at their La Habra ranch home, it made possible the first family reunion the children have ever enjoyed.

By a peculiar series of circumstances, the youngest daughter, Stella, who is 12 years of age, had never seen her oldest brother Fred. The little girl was born after the parents had come to La Habra and the brother had never visited California before.

Mr. Leutwiler is a prosperous citrus rancher of this section and a director of the First National bank of La Habra. There are seven daughters and two sons in this family, all of whom live in Orange county, except Fred.

FRATERNAL NEWS

Damascus Shrine

Mrs. H. Clay Kellogg, worthy high priestess of Damascus shrine, White Shrine of Jerusalem, was appointed supreme queen's attendant at the meeting held in the Masonic temple in honor of Mrs. Susan Hull Woest, Dayton, Ohio, supreme worthy high priestess.

Mrs. Woest gave an inspiring talk on the order and took occasion to compliment Damascus shrine for its various activities. Although one of the youngest shrines in the country, Damascus has already achieved a wonderful reputation for being progressive and wide awake, Mrs. Woest declared.

A splendid class of candidates was initiated into the order at the meeting. Among those who were admitted were the following: Louise J. Mock, Marie Beisel, Norah Beisel, Francis Richards, Grace Rogers, Albert Muder, Marjorie Muller, Elizabeth Price, Mary Howard, Lucy Agar, Mary Zeigler and Helen Plank.

Among the talks given was one by Captain J. H. Hall on the Bible.

Visitors were present from various parts of the southland. Among those present were William G. Wisner, supreme watchman of shepherds; Emma W. Wisner, Emily T. Warren, Frances Higgins, Lulu Belle Taylor, Elizabeth Palmer, Mary Davis, Viola Dunbar, Anna Little, Fern Roberts, Cora Leake, all supreme queen's attendants; Charles Thanner, Sidney Orme, Robert Leake, Robert Kightly, Miller Parmelee, supreme king's guards; and Edna Margaret Orme, deputy supreme worthy high priestess. Many past officers were in attendance.

The work of the order was made more interesting by the use of illustrated slides, recently procured. The slides are hand colored and taken from life. They are said to be the only ones on the coast.

The banquet was provided by the members, being cooked in their own homes. The tables were arranged in the form of a large cross. The 99 visitors present occupied a large table and the members smaller ones.

Red roses were used in decorating the room. A large basket filled with them was hung from the ceiling and the candles were placed among roses. The supreme worthy high priestess was presented with a large bouquet of American beauties, a hand-painted picture of a group of red roses and a box of chocolates.

The degree ceremony was exemplified by the officers in their robes, designed and made by Mrs. Kellogg.

S. A. Pyramid of Sciots

A box supper and dance will be held by Santa Ana pyramid, Ancient Egyptian Order of Sciots, in El Camino hall February 25, starting at 7:30 o'clock. It was announced today by W. B. Ashford, chairman of the publicity committee.

Each person attending is asked to bring a box of food, which will be auctioned off. A committee consisting of J. Kauffman, H. C. Collins, Charles Wheaton and Herbert Davis is making the arrangements for the social. The dance will start at 8 o'clock.

A number of local Sciots are planning to attend the ceremonial at San Diego February 21, Ashford said. Some will drive down and others will go by ship.

Regular business was transacted at the pyramid session in El Camino hall Wednesday night. A lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

Calumpit Camp

Calumpit camp No. 28, Spanish War Veterans, is progressing rapidly with its program of presenting Flag Etiquette cards to the schools of the county. Besides those mentioned last Friday, Patriotic Instructor Robert L. Lee has enlisted the services of Comrade U. Sherman Glaze, of Fullerton, to look after the presentation to the schools of that city. Some of the school officials of Santa Ana have spoken very highly of this educational program of the camp. Alex. Brownridge, a member of the board of education, spoke of this work in terms of highest praise.

The publisher of a veterans' has asked permission to reproduce the subject matter in his paper.

The department inspector received a letter from department headquarters congratulating Calumpit camp on its good work, and expressing the hope that every camp in the department get a supply of the cards.

Fraternal Aid Union

A talk by Long Deputy J. N. Kerns of Long Beach was enjoyed at the dinner meeting of the Fraternal Aid Union in the M. W. A. hall recently. R. L. Loucks acted as toastmaster. A number of speeches were made by members and visitors.

The new officers, headed by Mrs. Frank Harris, president, officiated at the meeting which followed the dinner.

Royal Neighbors

A Colonial party, with the Chevrolet team in charge of the program, will be held by the Royal Neighbors of America in the M. W. A. hall February 25. Those attending are asked to dress in costumes.

Six candidates were initiated at the meeting held by the organization February 9. The new officers, with Oracle Mrs. Floyd Knight, presiding, were in charge of the degree work.

The committee served salad, water and coffee at the conclusion of the session.

United Veterans of the Republic

There was born into patriotic society circles, last Saturday night, at the local City Hall, a new member of the patriotic associations. The latest member is Orange county unit No. 116, United Veterans of the Republic. This organization is composed of the veterans of all American wars and its purposes are to promote the political welfare of veterans and veteran organizations, to aid veterans in procuring employment and to assist disabled veterans in obtaining hospitalization, compensation and rehabilitation.

Past Commander Harry J. L. Atwood of Los Angeles unit No. 107, assisted by a member of the board of managers of Los Angeles unit No. 107, Robt. Clark, instituted the unit and installed the first set of officers.

The following is the list of the officers elected and installed by Past Commander Atwood: John Markwald, commander; Forrest Guy, first vice commander; Clyde Imes, second vice commander; Charles A. Lindquist, officer of the day; W. A. Settle, officer of the guard; Chas. E. Dixon, adjutant; and Marriott C. Cooper, quartermaster. The selection of the board of managers was left until some future date.

A set of by-laws have been adopted and sent to the national commander for approval and the purchase of supplies needed were provided for.

Past Commander Atwood made a very instructive talk on things that were being accomplished for and by the United Veterans. During the course of his remarks, he stated, that there were 28 members of the U. V. R. in the present state legislature and that they were in accord in so far as veteran legislation was concerned. Two bills in particular are being pressed: A bill providing for a $20,000,000 increase in the Veterans Home and Farm settlement and a bill creating a fund to be used to remove veterans from graves in pauper's yards to other burial. He also informed his audience that the Veterans' Home and Farm Settlement commission had provided for 2,600 homes and farms for veterans and only three of them had been allowed to go back to the state and that they were worth more now than when purchased, thus making the state a profit. He claimed that this Commission is the only one that has made a clear profit for the state of California.

Robt. Clark spoke of the activities of Los Angeles unit No. 107 in political campaigns in Los Angeles.

Calumpit Social Club

The Calumpit Social club held a very pleasant meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Minnie Johnson, 1017 North Main street. There was a large attendance.

DOG SAVES CAT

BOWDOINHAM, Me., Feb. 13.—Rover, the pet dog of Walter Pratt, and Tabby, his cat, are great friends. Tabby sleeps beside Rover at night. Pratt was aroused one night by a barking at his door. When he opened it in staggered Tabby, with one paw caught in a trap, and Rover dragging it along with the chain. The cat was wet, indicating that Rover had rescued her from a stream when her foot was caught in the trap.

EVENING SALUTATION

Under the serene influence breathed through life by a sweet and gentle spirit, impulse is deprived of its disturbing force, passion is softened down into energy, and prejudice takes the harmless form of earnest conviction.—John James Taylor.

ABOUT DUE FOR A FLOOD

If Southern California had had the heavy downpours that have fallen in the San Francisco bay region during the past three days, what would have been the result?

Ah, we would be all smiles. We would be looking forward to fine crops.

Yes, and we would be standing under umbrellas watching the Santa Ana river and the Santiago creek on rampage. We might be organizing rescue parties to get certain subdivision dwellers out of the torrent.

We might hear that the Santa Ana river had decided to return to its old path to the sea, as engineers say that it is likely to do. But its old channel is no longer a channel. It is crossed by ditches and paved highways graded to the level of the surrounding country. We have a sugar factory in it, and homes and orchards. So the flood waters would likely take to the paved streets of Anaheim.

Or, should the river not leave its present channel east of Anaheim, the muddy flood would be tearing its way out of the sides of the river. We were about to say "banks," but there are places where the bank is nothing but a thin line of weeds and willows which would go down the stream like an empty five-gallon oil can. How many acres of fine orchard would be washed away, and how many acres of fine orchard land would be covered and ruined by a deep deposit of fine river sand? What bridges would go? How much of the county's road would be damaged. The county farm?

We are about due for a flood. Those of us who are familiar with rainfall history know that wet and dry years have come in cycles. And it is about time for the wet side of the wheel to roll around.

We are not in any better fix today to meet the rampages of river and creek than we were nine years ago. We have done a great deal of talking about damming the Santa Ana river, but the movement is not in concrete form. No organized body with legal authority to raise the money and do the job has even undertaken the survey.

The damming of the Santiago creek, however, has come to a great deal more than talk. In 1916 it looked as though efforts to get the water right owners of the Santiago together was impossible. That, however, has been accomplished. They have come to an agreement under which the dam is to be built, possibly in the next two years, almost certainly in the next five years.

Instead of worrying about "when is it going to rain?" as we have been doing for the past six weeks, we might better be worrying about "when is it going to rain too much?" If we worry enough about "when is it going to rain too much?" we will do something about it—dam the river, or check-dam its mountain feeders—which will not only prevent the river from rampaging elsewhere than down the channel where we want it to do its rampaging, but will conserve a vast amount of water that will want during the years when the dry side of the wheel is rolling by.

Many young men think there can't be any more Lincolns because there are no more rails to split.

HOUSE FOR WORLD COURT

The lower house of Congress, usually thought of as having nothing directly to do with foreign affairs except to furnish money for them, surprises the public by bringing this resolution out of its foreign relations committee.

"Whereas, a World Court, known as the Permanent Court of International Justice, has been established and now is functioning at The Hague, and;

"Whereas, the traditional policy of the United States has earnestly favored the avoidance of war and the settlement of international controversies by arbitration or judicial processes, and;

"Whereas, this court in its organization and probable development promises a new order in which controversies between nations will be settled on an orderly way according to principles of right and justice, therefore,

"Be it resolved that the house of representatives desires to express its cordial approval of the said court and an earnest desire that the United States give early adherence to the protocol establishing the same, with reservations recommended by President Harding and President Coolidge;

"Be it further resolved that the house expresses its readiness to participate in the enactment of such legislation as necessarily will follow such approval."

It surprises the Senate even more than the public. But it does not awaken the same emotions there. The high and mighty Senate is disposed to gnash its teeth at such insolence as the House presuming to tell it what to do—for the plain purpose of the House resolution is to make the Senate adopt the World Court resolution that has long lain on its shelf.

The public is rather pleased at the action of the House.

EAR-PIERCING AGAIN?

London reports a vogue of long-drop earrings, so large and heavy that they cannot be held to the earlobes by the ordinary clamp or screw, so that there is a revival of the ear-piercing which flourished many years ago.

It will probably sweep America again, they say, as it is sweeping England. Women, to be fashionable, will have holes punched through their ears, enduring temporary torture and permanent disfigurement.

And these same women will find it impossible to understand how savage tribes can pierce their noses and lips for the insertion of their crude jewelry.

CHILD LABOR IN ARGENTINA

A national child labor law was enacted in Argentina last September. It makes 14 the minimum age for industrial and commercial employment all over the country. It restricts the gainful employment of children under 18 to six hours a day, six days a week, and prohibits night work in certain dangerous occupations for boys under 18 and for girls and women of all ages.

This law is said by the Children's Bureau at Washington to set a higher standard than exists in any state in our Union.

Evidently Anglo-Saxon civilization in this hemisphere will have to hump itself to keep up with Latin civilization, in the matter of safeguarding its young people.

WELCOME, Y. M. C. A.

Today Santa Ana extends a cordial welcome to the scores of Y. M. C. A. leaders who are gathered in convention in this city. This welcome is extended by a city that believes in the Y. M. C. A., as is evidenced by the Y. M. C. A. building provided by the people of this city and by the activities that are grouped within and about that building.

We are mindful of the wonderful work that the Young Men's Christian association has done in the world. It is an institution that has dealt with fundamental problems of character in a broad and practical way, and its achievements for better citizenship are indeed great and lasting.

Yet its work has just begun. Looking forward, we can see a greater and wider influence and a greater need for the Y. M. C. A. Its job is to aid in stemming the tide of recklessness among young people.

These men who are gathered here today are devoted to their work. They realize that in their work is a great opportunity for service, and the fact that they have selected the work signifies their faith in it; unless they believed in it they would not be the leaders in it that they are.

More Gubernatorial Luck

San Bernardino Sun.
Announcement that the California railroads are paying their state tax on the basis of the 7 per cent rate levied by the state or less famous King bill merely emphasized the brand of good fortune that seems to be constantly at the beck and call of Governor Richardson. If, indeed, in the dinner suit which once he scorned but now he wears, he should fall off the end of the pier when he is vacationing at his summer home in Long Beach, he would in all probability be safely landed on the pier again with his Tuxedo perfectly dry, and every pocket full of fish.

The payment on the part of the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific companies on the 7 per cent basis doubtless means that they know they have lost their battle in the Supreme court against that levy, and that they will therefore not only pay into the state treasury this year several millions more than were included in the budget estimates of revenue, but they must also pay into the treasury between $12,000,000 and $13,000,000 that was withheld during the years 1922, 1923 and 1924 when they paid on the former rate of 5 1/2 per cent, the rate prevailing under the old law before Senator King and his new tax schedule were announced at Sacramento.

The political effect of which is one of the ironies of California politics. Senator King was the representative of the Stephens administration in the legislature of 1921 when that administration drove through the amendment increasing the tax rate paid by the corporations that are levied on for the support of the state, the electric lines alone escaping. The effect was to materially increase the taxes, particularly on the steam railroads. The latter never forgave Governor Stephens, and when the primary of 1922 came along, they made their influence felt by accomplishing the nomination of Richardson over Stephens, in a close fight.

But the Richardson administration very properly stood for the rates fixed by the laws as found on the books, and has fought the matter through to the Supreme Court of the United States, whose probable decision against the roads is forecasted in their action in paying the tax this year at the higher rate. So that it comes about that the King Tax bill or the tax rates fixed by it were to some extent responsible for the nomination and election of Richardson, and now in the turn of the political kaleidoscope that same bill is bringing in to the Richardson administration so much money that the Governor and the Legislature could pave the Sacramento to the sea, or do anything else they please. The question is whether the decision from the Supreme Court will come in time for the present Legislature to avail itself of the unexpected surplus. As for the Governor, if the decision is somewhat delayed, he is likely to be allowed to stay at Sacramento another term to spend the money.

Textile Mills For West

Long Beach Press-Telegram.
The West needs woolen mills. The West needs cotton mills. The West could produce enough wool to keep many great mills going. The West could produce enough cotton to keep many great mills going. Conditions are now anomalous. The West produces wool and cotton. These are shipped to New England or elsewhere, to be manufactured. The textile industry is getting a good start here in California. But it is only a start. There is need of huge development along this line.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M. D.

EYE STRAIN

Your eyes have perhaps been bothering you some, and you have been to the optician, the optometrist, or even to the oculist, and no cause can be found, because your vision is perfect. You have been placed in a chair, and well printed, clear letters or figures, about one quarter inch in size, and separated from one another by about the same distance, are placed at a distance of fifteen feet from you. You find that you can read all the letters without any difficulty.

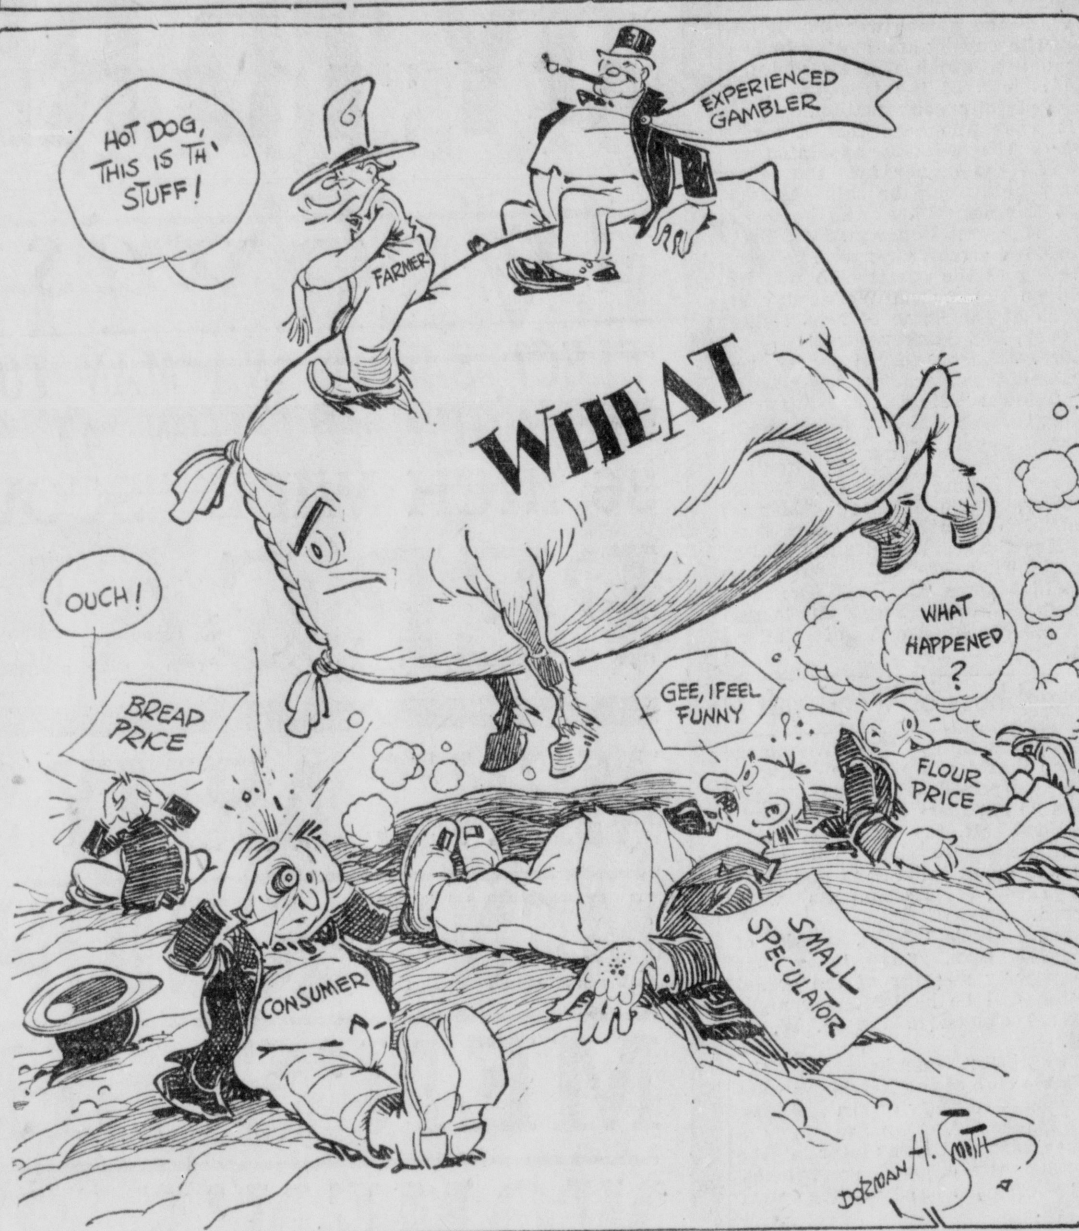

It is comforting to learn that your eyes are perfect, but they are giving you trouble just the same. You find that after you have been reading a little while that the type seems to "blur," and you find it necessary to take your eyes from the pages for a minute or two. You notice also that your eyelids seem to be red and heavy. When you go outdoors on a "sunny" day, the eyes pain you slightly. There is often an undue amount of moisture about the eyes, and our old friends, "styes," sometimes appear.

What is the matter? Simply overuse of the eyes. It may be that you do not use them so much, but use them where the light is poor, or where it strikes directly from in front.

Sometimes it is the actual holding of the eyes at a certain distance and angle from the printed or written page, that tires the muscles that hold the eyeball in place. You may remember that these muscles are on either side, and above and below the eyeball, and are thus able to turn the eye in any direction. So just as holding out your hand at arm's length will so tire the shoulder muscle that you drop your hand in five minutes, so will this holding of the eyes at one point for too long a time tire these eye muscles.

Sometimes, where one is a hearty eater, but takes no exercise or physical work, there is intestinal congestion which affects the eyes, just as it affects other parts of the body. So if you are advised that you do not need glasses you should be pleased about it of course, but try to observe a few eye health rules, and so avoid this "eye strain" as it is called. Have the light strike the page from behind if possible. Always have a good light, and quit reading or writing if you can't get it. Rest your eyes as you would rest your body. If riding in a motor car, not driving, or at the movies, close your eyes occasionally. It will relieve the nerves and muscles of the eyes.

Newspaper Public Service

Albany Knickerbocker Press

Albany Knickerbocker Press: Frank Overton, executive editor of the New York State Medical Journal, writing on the subject of newspapers as health factors in a community says:

"The people generally get more ideas from newspapers than from all other subjects combined. I cannot prove this statement and you cannot disprove it. Let us compromise by agreeing that the newspaper is one of the greatest forces for educating the people. . . . We may safely say that newspaper is the principal text book from which people study public health."

In this is a suggestion of one phase of the newspaper's function of service to the community or communities of which it is a part. In his occasional moments of depression the newspaper man is inclined to sit back and wonder:

"Is it worth while? Does it get anywhere? Is it read, and is it read in the spirit wherein it is written? Is it taken as a part of friendly discussion or does the average reader get the idea of the newspaper writer trying to sit up at the top of something and 'talking down'?"

Again, when there is something to be done, something that must be eternally hammered into public consciousness and public thought there must be some, of course, who rebel at the insistence of application. Perhaps it is water supply; perhaps it is garbage collection or garbage disposal; perhaps it is city cleanup, all parts of the things that must be done.

But the results eventually prove the case. Little by little things happen. Events move toward new water supplies, toward better and cleaner cities, toward the realization of the big essentials. It works out.

Keep a-go-in'!

When the weather kills your crop,
Keep a-go-in'!
When you tumble from the top,
Keep a-go-in'!

Suppose you're out o' every dime
Bein' so ain't any crime,
Tell the world you're feelin' prime—
Keep a-go-in'!

When it looks like all is up
Keep a-go-in'!
Drain the sweetness from the cup
Keep a-go-in'!

See the wild birds on the wing
Hear the bells that sweetling ring
When you feel like sighin', sing!
Keep a-go-in'!

Little Benny's
Note Book

by Lee Pope

This afternoon I came home and hung up my overcoat on the hall-rack and went upstairs to wash my hands and face for supper, more because I knew I would get to enways than because I felt like it, and all of a sudden ma called up, Benny, come down heer immediately.

With I did, with my hands and face still full of water and half full of soap, and ma was standing by the hall-rack saying, Wat in the world is this terrible big stone on the back of your overcoat?

My overcoat, I sed.

Never mind repeating my words, wat is it? ma sed.

Oh wizz, it may be paint, I sed.

How do you mean, it may be? ma sed. Were you enway neer eny paint? she sed.

I dont know, Im not sure, I may of bin, I sed.

Do you mean to say you can stand there on 2 feet and look me in the eyes and tell me you dont know, weather youve bin neer paint or not? ma sed.

I dont know, maybe I was, I sed, and ma sed. One more maybe out of you and you'll get a slap you'll remember to your dying day and no maybe about it, now wat about this stance?

Well the reason I think maybe it mite be paint is because when I was coming home I was with Puds Simkins and there was a lam post with a sine on it saying Wet Paint. So I didnt look wet to me and Puds didnt bleeve it neither, so we made up a contract to push each other into it just to prove it, and he pushed me first and then I pushed him, ony it was too dark to see if anything happened, so I aint sure, but may be something mite of, I sed.

Wich jest then something did for sure, being ma giving me a fearse push in the middle of the face and the quick running upstairs with the coat to see if she could get the stance out wile it was still partly fresh.

Traffic

SAY, look where you're goin', yea, look where you step. In crossin' the highways you've gotta show pep. There ever is something that's headin' your way because of the traffic that's rollin' today.

With folks that are drivin' it's now come to pass that not everyone's wantin' to step on the gas. The man who is walking is wise if he feels that he's gotta look out for the automobiles.

There once was the day when the streets were at loss for something to hinder the folks who would cross. We went from one side to the other, shy fear, 'cause all of the highways and byways were clear.

But only a mem'ry is thought of that kind. How different today are the things that we find. The old horseless carriage just planted the seed that grew into madness and craving for speed.

The world moves along, in what people will say, and it's moving much faster and faster each day. Perhaps, through the speed, in less time we arrive, but we'd better slow down so's to get there alive.

Outdoor Life for Girls Too

Sunset Magazine

We are all agreed that it is good for boys to get out of doors, to sleep on the ground under the stars, cook their own meals, chop wood, climb steep trails, learn to cast a fly and acquire that self-reliant independence which comes only from intimate contact with the rough old lady, Nature. It's only recently, though, that the gander sauce has been applied to girls as well as boys. There have been summer camps for girls ever since the outdoors became fashionable, but these "camps" in reality were merely summer residences requiring practically no readjustment or effort on the part of the visitors. Yet it is this readjustment, this extra effort necessary to provide the essentials of life through one's own ingenuity and strength, that make camping valuable. There is no character building value in the effort necessary to lie in a summer resort hammock or jazz on a smooth floor to radio music, but it is of permanent value to every girl to learn how to build and operate a cooking fire, how to make a comfortable bed in the woods, how to walk six hours with a pack without collapsing, how to sleep in the open without fear, how to find her way without a taxi, how to be content and happy without movies, male admirers or georgette waists for a while.

The campfire girls and the Girl Scouts are popularizing real camping for girls. Give them your support. They ought to flourish in the far West like the stock market after a Republican victory. Let's use our mountains to build up a race of future mothers who will be physically and spiritually fit to produce in the far West the finest generation in the world's history.

Speed of Light

We are likely to think of eclipses as occurring only to the sun and moon, but as a matter of fact the phenomenon is common in the sky. Jupiter and Saturn with their many moons present frequent eclipses that can be seen by the terrestrial observer. It is of interest to note that the first determination of the velocity of light was made after observing a peculiarity in the eclipses of the satellites of Jupiter. Before the seventeenth century it was believed that light was transmitted instantaneously. But about 1676 Roemer, a Danish astronomer then at Paris, noticed that when the moons of Jupiter were compared with some carefully computed tables discrepancies were revealed. The eclipses were often later than the predicted times by a varying number of minutes, the extent of the delay depending on whether the earth and Jupiter were on the same side or on opposite sides of the sun. When the earth and Jupiter were farthest apart the difference between prediction and observation amounted, according to the material that Roemer had for comparison, to more than twenty minutes. The discrepancy decreased as the earth and Jupiter approached each other, and disappeared when they were nearest together.

Roemer decided that such a variation, affecting as it did all the moons of Jupiter in exactly the same way, could not be inherent in the motions of the moons themselves; and he drew the conclusion, which has proved to be correct, that light has a measurable speed. The observed delay, he argued, is due to the time required by light to travel the extra distance between Jupiter and the observer on the earth. The difference in distance between nearest and farthest positions of Jupiter is equal to the diameter of the orbit of the earth. Roemer therefore concluded that light requires about twenty minutes to travel across the orbit of the earth, a distance of 186 million miles. Now we know of more accurate laboratory methods of measuring the speed of light, but this first method from eclipses gave a value that has not been greatly altered by subsequent work.—Harlow Shapley in The Youth's Companion.

NO. 5—THE CHIPMUNKS LOSE THEIR MONEY

Mister Peg Leg and Nancy and Nick sat in Mrs. Chipmunk's parlor with all the things spread out on the floor; all the things that Mister Peg Leg carried in his peddler pack.

Mrs. Chipmunk was so excited she picked up first one thing and then another.

"What a beautiful fan!" she exclaimed. "Isn't it lovely! It would exactly match my new black and orange dress."

"And what a lovely mat! It would do for a center piece on my table to put under my gramophone, or on the back of my big plush chair."

"And what a pretty dish! I would do finely for pickles, or I could use it on my bureau to put pins in. How much is it, Mister Peg Leg?"

Mrs. Chipmunk admired everything and asked the price. There was a silk apple pin-cushion, and a picture and a clock and a silk shawl and a shiny kettle and some beads and bracelets and a dish mop and handkerchiefs and everything almost.

"Oh, dear!" sighed Mrs. Chipmunk. "I do wish I was rich! Chipmunk, I have a little money saved up in the tea pot on the mantel for a rainy day, but we agreed not to use it."

"Why don't you ask Mister Chipmunk?" said Nick who was very anxious for the little peddler man to get enough money to buy a new peg leg. His old one was worn off so awfully.

"That's a good idea!" declared
